“ Ed and Bernadette,

My condolences for the loss of your son, Eddie. It is so hard losing a child, I'm sure, but one thing you can't lose are your memories. I did not have the opportunity to meet him, but if the adage "The acorn does not fall far from the tree." is true, he was an outstanding man of talent and principle. I can see that from the words written about him. Take solace in your grief and in knowing that you did a great job in raising him to be the man he was and where he was in life. And, you will meet with him again.

*Love, and Take Care,

“ To the Hamilton Family,

I never met Ed but I heard about him all the time and asked about him often because his sister Kendra is my very good friend and she loved her big brother. We discussed all things big brother, she was very proud of her brother. I pray continually for your family during this time. Romans 14:8

“ Dear son,

this is a note from your dad I never will forget the day you were born on a cold and snowy day In January 2, 1968

What a beautiful baby you were. We loved you so much and watched as you grew up and became a man who knew no strangers You are in Gods hands now but you will always be in our hearts. we love you, we miss you and above all I will miss those big hugs and that big smile.

Rest my son till we meet again

Love you more 🙏

You Dad

Eddie, we never met, but I feel as if I missed out on meeting a real friend. Your parents and I met at Martha's Vineyard maybe 15 or more years ago. I've loved them ever since. We try to do everything together when we vacation and stay in touch over the winter. We missed seeing each other this year, so our electronic communication has been really intense and has actually brought us closer than the frenzied week or so we share each summer.

I share a summer house with a whole crew of folks who have fallen in love with your family. We will continue to embrace them, pray with them, laugh with them and share the triumphs and challenges life brings.

Rest Eddie. You've earned your rest and I pray that God grants your robe and your crown. God bless you.

What a shock to hear the news. To my Childhood friend growing up on 43rd Street. I am so glad that we connected a few years back after my mother's passing. I was looking forward to seeing you again now that I've moved back to the States. God knows best and praying for comfort to the family and to those who knew Eddie. God help us all during these challenging times. The Chandler family will keep the Hamiltons in our thoughts and prayer.
