“ I love you Momma #2! I have great memories staying the night at the old house and you making dinner for everyone. You were always there for Mary and I when we were in tough times or great times. I know you are now Mary and Xaiden's Gaurdian Angel watching over them through everything. You will be truly missed and loved everyday.

“ To my brother Bill and my wonderful nieces and nephews.Elaine's brother Kevin.
and family.

Today you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Over the last twenty five years, connecting with Elaine was always one of my favorite parts of my visits to Orlando. My heart and mind are filled with all the ways - her kindness and caring, and understanding...as both a “Mom” and a friend..always remember her as a caring wife for Bill .

*We are with you in spirit as you celebrate Elaine and her life, so very well lived.
All our love June and Don Cottingim*

“ What a beautiful person Elaine was inside and out. She was so kind and compassionate and the love she had for her family was heartwarming. She also made me feel so special and went out of her way to make me feel welcome.

I feel blessed to have known her and know that she will be an incredible guardian angel for her family. My prayers to the family at this difficult time.

“ Everyone says they have the best Mom in the world, but I truly think I won with you. You were so giving and selfless and you made it your goal to make others happy even if it meant you went without. You were there for me through anything and everything, and I don't know what I would've done without your support. I'll miss you so much and I'll make sure that I keep your memory alive for Xaiden. I'll always talk about you and show him how beautiful his Grandma was. I love you and miss you everyday.
