“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the Bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away I invite you to visit the following site for more on this promise; www.jw.org

“ I remember the first time I met Leon & Eleanor Grobaski. It was some twenty plus years ago Lisa and I worked together at Insurance Office of Florida, and had become good friends. They had stopped by to see Lisa; and when I was introduced to them, they greeted me with a big hug and gave me a kiss as if they had known me for years. I will always remember Eleanor as a kind and loving person. Lisa, my prayers are with you and your family during this very difficult time. Remember I love you all very much and I am here for you anytime day or night. Give your Dad a hug for me and tell him I love him. Shirley

“ You were the very best Mother & Grandmother that anyone could ever be blessed to have in their life. I am ever so grateful that the Lord allowed me to be with you & have the chance to tell you that I love you in your last moments of life on earth. I would not have wanted it any other way. Even though you have left us physically, you will always be present in our hearts. Until we meet again.....we will all miss you dearly. We LOVE you!

Lisa,

I so know what you are going thru. There will be days you will talk to her and tell her you love and miss her. But it will get better because she is in peace with the lord with no more pain or sorrow. She walks with Jesus.
