

Elina Rachelle Macias Shah

August 1, 2011 - April 28, 2025

Elina Macias Shah, beloved daughter of Bhavin Shah and Paula Macias, passed away surrounded by love, leaving behind a legacy of light, joy, and unforgettable smiles. Born on August 1, 2011 — just one day before her father’s birthday — Elina was the greatest gift her parents could have ever received.

She was born at Winnie Palmer Hospital in Orlando, Florida, and spent the first five years of her life in Winter Springs, Florida. There, she attended PreK and kindergarten at Winter Springs Elementary School, where she thrived and loved every minute of her early school days.

When her father accepted a new role at Disney, the family moved to Winter Garden, Florida — into a brand new, beautiful house that quickly became Elina’s sanctuary. She adored that home, every corner of it, and it became the backdrop of some of her most joyful and peaceful years. She attended Chrysalis School, where she blossomed. She loved every part of the school — the teachers, the friendships, the learning — and during her time there, she grew exponentially in every way.

Elina loved all things Disney, especially Frozen. She could often be found singing, dancing, and simply living in joy — always present, always embracing the moment. She had an infectious energy that reminded everyone around her to celebrate the little things.

Family vacations were something she cherished deeply. Every year, the family would take at least one vacation together — and Elina loved every second of those getaways. She was also a true foodie at heart, with a deep love for her Indian roots. She especially looked forward to summertime, when her grandmother would visit and cook her a variety of delicious Indian dishes every day — something Elina delighted in with great excitement. Her summer breaks with her grandparents and her beloved aunty, Sonal Shah, were some of her most treasured times of the year.

From the very beginning, Elina had a special spirit — angelic, radiant, and full of joy. She was a bright soul who lit up every room she entered and touched countless lives with her laughter, kindness, and playful energy. Her smile was contagious, her silliness irresistible, and her heart bigger than words can express.

Elina had an extraordinary bond with her mother, Paula, whom she adored deeply. Whether FaceTiming during the day or simply sharing everyday moments, the two shared an unbreakable connection. Elina also cherished her "Daddy–Elina time," especially their weekend adventures — from grocery store runs to theme parks, to quiet cuddles at home. She was her father's reset, his joy, his best buddy.

In 2024, Elina formed another special bond — this time with her dog, Treats. From picking out toys at PetSmart to FaceTiming him every morning to tell him when she'd be back, Elina found in Treats a joyful companion and best friend.

Despite her medical challenges, Elina met every moment with grace and courage. She never let anything steal her joy. She reminded everyone around her to slow down, love fully, and always find reasons to smile. Her simple life motto — “Be happy. And smile.” — lives on in all who were lucky enough to know her.

Elina is survived by her loving parents, Bhavin and Paula; her grandparents, Kishore and Tarli Haria, and Ana Rachelle Macias; her aunty, Sonal Shah; extended family; countless friends; and the many people whose hearts she brightened along the way.

She will forever be remembered as a daughter, a light, a teacher, and a beautiful soul who brought joy to the world in her own unforgettable way.
