Here is a little text to make you stronger:

"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

Dear Mrs. elisabeta Shamku

A great pain a bad news this morning and we lost our dear man, Mrs. Elizabeth Shamku ,,, I can not write, but I'm shaking hands ,,, now browsing your photos in your profile on Facebook ... I am remembering the beautiful moments that have passed when you were in Tirana and now in facebook ... I always remember the beautiful moments when I was little always show your love to me, often to invite to your home to play with Evis and Lindi. You have always been a noble and loving woman, but even though you were astray in America you still remain the same loving, noble and a woman approached me. I can not believe that you are dead, I was dreaming that soon to come there in Orlando, Florida to meet you, dear Beta. But I will always think that you are alive among us, you do not die because you are a noble and loving lady. Remained in my mind for me cards Your sweet voice together with Edmond on 3 May when I had birthday. Now I can not believe that you are dead, that your heart has stopped but my tears flow down my cheeks ,,,,

*God bless you,
Your soul RIP.*

Respect and love yours,

“ Elisabeta was an absolutely beautiful and kind woman. She was always so thoughtful of of my daughter, Emma. There was so little time for our families to create memories with her, but one of our favorites will be the time we spent coming together as one at Heather and Rilind's wedding. Her loss is devastating to many people.

*We will love you always, Beta.
