“ You have my deepest sympathy and empathy in you loss. During such a time I was greatly encouraged by a promise I found in the Bible at Revelation 21:3, 4 where a time will come when we will not experience the suffering that come from this type of tragedy. With this thought in mind I invite you to visit www.jw.org, there you will find more information on Gods promise of the resurrection.

“ May you always RIP Elizabeth! I will never forget all the great times and the bad times we had together starting in the 70s at Saint Michael's School, how we were always placed at the back of the line because we were the tallest ones in class, receiving Confirmation together, shopping together ... to the present and how you nagged me all the time to get my butt up there and see my family! I wish I had a chance to see you once more before God took you, but I'm sure we shall meet again some day.

“ Hello, I would like to express my condolence at this time to your family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement at times like this, a comforting thought is at Revelation 21:3,4 where it states "...And he will wipe out every year from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning not outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This scripture gives us hope for the future! For more information please visit our website at jw.org

“ When someone we love dies, it leaves a hole in our hearts. This sorrow was felt by Jesus, Mary and Martha when Lazarus their brother died. Jesus said to Martha: “I am the resurrection and the life, the one who exercises faith in me even though he dies, will come to life. Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?” Then he proceeded to resurrect Lazarus and he promises to resurrect all those in the memorial tombs. Please read John 5:28, 29 in your Bible and may this hope bring your family comfort.

“ Liz you will always be in my memories. I will never forget your laughter.

*Dear friend, you cannot fathom
The love I had for you
You always gave compassion
To everyone you knew.*

*Your heart was full of kindness
Your soul was filled with peace
Your faith could not be shaken
Your light will never cease.*

*Your joy flowed like a fountain
Refreshing everyday
So clean, so pure, so simple
Like rain that falls in May.*

*Your smile was like the sunshine
As fresh as any flower
A heart as big as Texas
As steady as a tower.*

*You praised God for each hour
For each and every day
You lived life to its fullness
And took the time to pray.*

*So many acts of kindness
You spread throughout the year
A hug was always waiting
For those that you held dear.*

*You had a love for babies
And fuzzy kittens too
Unending love for family
And special friendships, too*

*A husband, son and sisters
Just to name a few
So many other people
Now miss you like I do.*

*No longer do your emails
Come to my screen each day
Through all those years of writing
We always found a way.*

*You traveled through the valleys
Your eyes fixed on the sky
Like Job found in the Bible
You never questioned why.*

*God took you to His mansion
What rejoicing there must be
When He took away your cancer
And He set your spirit free.*

“ I meet Elizabeth through her son Eddie and I have been praying for her and the family. I know this is a great loss, my condolences to the family, just know that she is with the Lord no more pain and she will be your guiding angel. The little I knew of her, she was a special lady.

“ The first time I met Elizabeth was in the summer of 1994 when we visited Florida. Through out the years have grown close to her and her children. She was also such a nice person and always went the extra mile to make you feel comfortable. Although she was fighting for her life still checked on me and my family. I'm truly going to miss Liz. I know she's in a better place and not suffering anymore. At least she can shine down on us from heaven and smile at all of us and know we all love her. Rest in peace Liz your sweet spirit will be remembered. Love, Shanique Ashers
