“ I am deeply saddened about the passing of my loving aunty Elvina. My Summers in Central Florida will never be the same without you around, listening to your childhood stories whilst cooking some of my favourite dishes. As I affectionately called her, Aunty was an extraordinary person, full of love, warmth, and kindness. Her presence brightened the lives of everyone around her, and her absence will be deeply felt. She touched so many hearts with her compassionate nature and infectious smile.

I have fond memories of Aunty in every crucial stage of my life, and I will always treasure the moments we shared together. She made everyone feel special and loved, and her impact on our lives will never be forgotten.

My dear cousins, Lorna, Charms and Raul, I understand that losing someone so dear is an unimaginable pain, and my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family as you navigate this profound grief. Please remember that you are not alone during this difficult time, and I am here for you if there is anything I can do to offer support and comfort.

May the cherished memories of Aunty bring you solace and peace in the days ahead. She will forever remain in our hearts, and her legacy of love and kindness will continue to inspire us.

With deepest sympathy,

Clair, Dave, Iyanna and Mya

The sudden and untimely passing of aunty Elvina, leaves me to reflect on the last stanza of a Catholic Hymn that says;

*Death will come one day to me;
Jesus, cast me not from Thee;
Dying, let me still abide,
In Thy heart and wounded side.*

Indeed, death will come one day to every human being on this earth and that is the surest way to re-unite with God who made the heavens and the earth.

This is indeed a very difficult moment for your children, family and friends you've left behind but I believe each one of them will take solace in the fact that this world is not our home, we are just passing through it as pilgrims.

Sadly, I never got to meet you in person but all the testimony I heard about you confirm you were a unifier, a rock and pillar for the family.

Indeed a mighty tree has fallen and a big vacuum has been created by your passing.

May God grant your children and family the strength to overcome and recover from this big blow of your passing.

Till we meet someday, REST IN PERFECT PEACE in the bosom of our Lord.

Gideon.

Hello Cuz I would love to express my deepest condolences to you & your Sibling, your mom & my mom chatted all the time & sundays was her days for me. We would chat about relatives surviving & passed She was happy to have communicated with my uncle Ray before his passing & my uncle Henry who's now with us. I will miss her daily prayers & high spirits. This is not a moment of sadness but a moment of celebration of her life.. as she & mom often chat of her gentleman friend & then as young lady's the strong spirit & mind & no no sense women.. it was a pleasure knowing her from a distance she will be missed. She often said you don't know my kids but one day you will.. love always. From my family to you Love from the Denis & Mondesir family
