“ To the family, please accept my deepest and sincerest condolences.

Aunt Emma was the epitome of warmth and hospitality, always ready to open her home and heart to others. I am definitely going to miss her and the gatherings she so graciously hosted, where her spirit of community brought us all together. Her ability to love and support her family was unparalleled, and it's this quality that will forever define the memories we hold of her.

Emma's absence will leave a void in our lives, but her legacy of love and support lives on through each of us who had the privilege of knowing her. As we say goodbye, let us remember that it is not the end of her journey but the beginning of her eternal peace.

Rest well, Aunt Emma, knowing that your memory will be cherished and your contributions to our lives will never be forgotten.
Love, Lamas & Winter James

“ To Emma’s loved family. Your mom was such a joy to me . We often had funny talks about life as we both volunteered on the chemotherapy unit of Orlando Health. Her heart was giving back to first time breast cancer patients to help them deal with their anxieties. She was a true Christian lady and she will be missed.
Love you Emma.

“ To April, Scoot, and all the family,

My sincerest condolences to you. I loved Emma and I will miss her laugh and our conversations.

Whoever said, “life is too short” coined a phrase. My journey with Emma began approximately 54 years ago. We met at JD Hospital in Houston, TX where we both worked. Upon meeting, we immediately connected and became forever friends. I was engaged to be married during that time and we had bonded to a point where I asked her to be one of my bridesmaids and she agreed. So many memories between then and now.

Emma – petite, witty, soft spoken but on point, had a magnetic charm about her that made you feel like she had always been a part of your life. Her loving and caring spirit endeared her. We shared secrets, laughter, some tears, and had a sister/friend relationship.

As we got older the one thing we shared most was a strong belief and faith. Our conversations changed to speak more about our children and grandchildren. We would pray for you all, and we would always say that we were storing up prayers for when the time came that we would no longer be in the earth realm. Well, I just want you to know that those prayers will never cease. I will continue until it is my time and guess what – those stored prayers will then kick in. May God comfort you and keep you.

Love, Charlie
