

Enisha Donyeal English

August 15, 1976 - October 5, 2025

Enisha Donyeal English was born August 15, 1976 in Springfield, Illinois to the parents of Angela English Jackson and Eric Wynn Curtis.

At an early age, she moved from Springfield, IL to Orlando, Florida. She graduated from Groveport Madison High School, Groveport, Ohio.

Her entire professional life was spent on her love of taking care of young children...from newborn to pre-school to kindergarten. At most childcare facilities, she served as the lead teacher. Enisha's love for her students and their love for her reached up to high school.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her two daughters, Sanae Tomoko-Kai (Tyrone) Perry and Tatiana Celine Mikayla (Devin) Perry, one son, Israel Michael Perry all of Orlando, Florida; her mother, Angela English Jackson of Orlando, Florida, her father, Eric Wynn Curtis, Las Cruces of New Mexico; two sisters, Lindsay G. Jackson of Orlando, Florida and Ashley Curtis of Durham, North Carolina; one brother, Harry Curtis of Durham, North Carolina and several aunts, uncles, cousins, and a host of friends.

Enisha loved makeup and loved to experiment with it.

The Family wishes to extend sincere thanks and deep gratitude for the many expressions of sympathy, love, and consideration shown them in their hour of sorrow.

“ *I was shocked to hear the passing of Enisha. Enisha or as my daughter called her Ms. Nisha was truly amazing. She made learning fun while still being a stickler for helping the kids grow and learn. She prepared Ariyah so well for “big girl school,” and the impact she had on her has lasted. I believe Ariyah sees a lot of Ms. Nisha in the teachers she connects with deeply today.❤️
Our deepest condolences to Ms. Nisha’s family and friends. She left a lasting impression on so many little hearts.🙏
RIP, Ms. Nisha. Thank you for the foundation you built. ☐*
