

Eric Andrew Allie

November 21, 1987 - November 21, 2023

In loving memory of Eric Andrew Allie, born on 11/21/87 and departed on 11/21/23. He is survived by his mother Carolin Allie, father David Allie, siblings Kirke Bray, Jay Allie, Vince Allie, Vivian Allie, Adam Allie, and niece Anna Bray. Reunited in spirit with his grandfather Bunk Hatfield, brother Johnse Bray, and beloved dog Roxy.

Eric's vibrant spirit, overflowing with life, love, and laughter, left an indelible mark on all fortunate enough to share his journey. Known for his boundless generosity, there was nothing he wouldn't do for those he held dear. Eric found joy in music, art, knowledge, animals, nature, and the joy of being of service.

He will be deeply missed, but his legacy of warmth and kindness will forever endure in the hearts of those he touched.

“ I met Eric on Line a number of years ago. One of my favorite memories was when I was trying to buy some shoes and they would not ship to Canada. I asked if Eric could buy them if I gave him the money and then ship them to me, at my cost. He was happy to be the guy that was a workaround to an obstacle. He was always just an awesome dude. Really gonna miss you bro.

“ Eric aka Charlie has been my friend for nearly 9 years. Meeting on Line. He would call me Looooona in a way that only he could. He was kind and full of humourous advice. He would tell me that everyone online were just pixels. He was not just pixels to me. He was my friend. Although I live across the pond, I had hoped to have one day, shook the hand of such a gentleman. My heart aches and I will miss him now until the day we meet again. Love you Charlie ❤️ My deepest condolences to his family and friends. ❤️

“ Eric was a great guy, while I didnt know him IRL, he was a very kind person who will be missed dearly by his 'line' friends. We spent many hours together chatting over the last 6 or so years just shooting the breeze. He was a very kind person, who had a great sense of humor and a knack for goofing around. I hope that you finally got night hearing when you received your angel wings. lol. You will not be forgotten.
