“ *Dear Greg, Linda, Walt,
I met Eric over 20 years ago on his trip to San Francisco and have been a big fan of him ever since. I am so grateful for the vacations and phone calls we have shared over the years. His wonderful personality, charm, bravery, and personal style have inspired and motivated me. He always spoke so highly of you three, and the love he felt was apparent with every word. I will miss him terribly.

“ It is with a sad and heavy heart that I let you know that our youngest son, Eric, has gone home to the Lord. Eric was a joy to his family and friends and will be sorely missed by all. Eric had a very large heart and a beautiful soul. He was my phone buddy and we talked several times a day. I am truly going to be lost without those talks. Eric has been fighting many illnesses over the last years. He was his cousin Deena's hero. I realize how selfish I have been over the years praying that God would let me keep Eric a while longer. I think that God finally took it out of my hands, said Eric had suffered enough and took him home. Walt and I thank God and praise his name for all the years we had with our wonderful son. Eric, go with God till we get there. Mom and Dad

“ Eric, you were the best brother-in-law anyone could ever have. I loved you to the moon and back. We didn't get to spend as much time together after we moved to Tallahassee but I loved you so much. You will always be in my heart.

“ Eric will be missed but never forgotten. His funny look over his glasses and his over done country twang funning his favorite music. An adventurous nature and love for getting out and about has created memories for me and all who he met. My happiness for his pain and challenges coming to an can only be expressed in tears now but will be glowing memories in the future. To all those touched by this man, my deepest feeling go out to you. Be glad for him and for what he brought to our lives. Love you always Eric.

My son, if only I could share my feelings as you do. We only knew Eric after his eye site was taken, but what oh how he was so far ahead of us on many fronts. Mary and I are so glad to have known Eric, though having meet only a few times. He will continue to be on our prayer list each and every day. May he forever rest in peace. We send our condolence to mom, dad brother and Gregory.

Greg, You are an amazing man. Your love, strength and dedication does not go unnoticed. I've had the pleasure of being friends with Eric and you the past 11 years. My heart hurts for your loss and ours. Those who knew Eric, will carry his light and remember the generous, kind and loving soul he is.

Mr & Mrs Cullars: My condolences for your loss. There wasn't a day that went by that his love and concern for the both of you were a priority in his life. Eric is a son everyone would want to have.

Big Hug to All! Tom J.

Eric's gentle nature and love of all things fun helped make all our gatherings a special time. Despite all his physical challenges, he strove on and lived as full a life as possible and for that, Eric will always be a hero to me. We all are deeply saddened by Eric's passing but, as Greg has written, his suffering is over and that is indeed something to be consoled by.

Meanwhile, my second piece of admiration goes out to my extended family member, Brother Greg. Over a decade ago, Greg made a commitment to Eric and, despite an ocean of challenges, Greg never stopped swimming and thus, by Greg's love and devotion, Eric had a much better life than if they had never met.

Eric and I spoke often when Greg was off doing something in the kitchen or other places in the house to keep things going. Eric always told me how much Greg meant to him and how grateful he was that he and Greg were together. Bravo, Gregor!

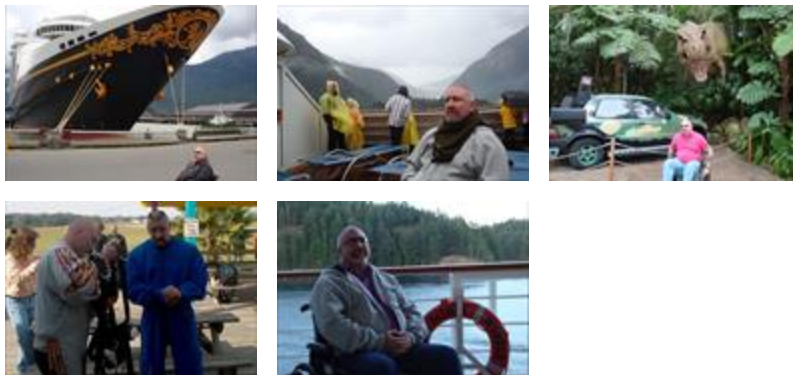

On behalf of my wife, Kim and my 2 Aunts (Mary & Jo), we pray for Greg and the rest of Eric's and Greg's family for peace and the ability to move on the way Eric would have liked them to.
