“ Ernie was a good friend and racer. After Richard died, my son Ricky loved him like a father and Richard had a big heart for him. Ernie told Ricky who was 4 at the time, the next feature he won he would give Ricky the trophy. Ernie won the next week, came and got him out of the stands took him on the front stretch at GG and gave him the trophy. He still has it today and he is now 37. Ernie was a class Act. RIP my friend!

“ I best remember my Uncle from when I was a you girl. He drive long distance and during the summer months when scold was out he would sometimes come by on his way home and let me ride in the Big truck a spend a couple of weeks with him and his first wife. Over the adult years when did not see that much of each other but I will always have my summer memories. Love you always my Big Truck driving Uncle Sandi DuBose

“ You gave unconditional love it's definition. I will never forget you telling me "I love you I mean that and I always will, no matter what" You were selfless, I looked up to you since I was a little girl. That big truck you'd drive home on lunch breaks and let me climb up in and the race cars I would help clean up to go racing. Thank you for all the love and memories. My heart breaks for the family and many friends he touched. See you in the winner's circle Ernie.....
