“ Mama all we ever did was laugh you and I. You were probably one of the only people in the world who could make me laugh to tears consistently.....I hear your laugh (hahahaaaayyy !!!) (pronounced ha ha ha eye !!!) And when i would irritate you --- you would say gway from me bwwhaay !! lol

You were right you told me this would be the last time i saw you when we were together 1 year and half ago and as usual i told you that you were eternal !!!

You are eternal you have left so many generations and you saw them too this is the gift of life of the blessing of the true God.....

I miss you and wish your wings great velocity as you bless heaven with your hahahaaaayyy

“ Dear Family, I am so very sorry about the loss of year dear loved one. May the thought at Job 33:25 give you comfort in knowing that Mrs. Chisholm will return to the days of her youth and be able to enjoy life without the infirmities of old age. My sincere condolences to you.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of your dear loved one and our sincerest condolences to the family. Trials such as this one can be unbearable, "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during distress." Psalms 46:1 Draw close to God in prayer, He does not forget the outcry of the afflicted ones. He will give you the needed strength to endure the days ahead.
