“ I am in love with the memories of hanging out with Grammy during the summer and thought my memory is vague, I always enjoyed giving her company and spending time with her when I could . Granted, I loved it when my cousins came over and ESPECIALLY when we would have cookouts and have a great time. And to you Grammy, I love you so much and I miss when dad would wake me up and ask if I wanted to come visit and without hesitation, I came along and enjoyed the smiles we shared. I am glad you are doing great now and hope that all is well for the rest of your days to come. Though your time here is done, your journey has seem to only begun. Tell everyone I said hey and I love them. See ya later!

“ *My grandmother was one of a kind and the true definition of what a grandmother should be she loved her family above all else she would give you great advice not what you wanted to hear was a jokester in some ways at times, very well loved and respected in her neighborhood by all to know her is to love her she truly leaves behind a great legacy and great memories. "Grammy" we love you, miss you but you are resting on in a better place fly high baby girl you earned your wings and GOD has spoken to say job well done my good and faithful servant and I find peace knowing you lived a good full life and we had you for 93 years I long and pray to be graced with many years as you were.
Love your granddaughter
