“ My late Mom, Katie, of Blessed Memory ? was so very fond of dear Fred that every single time he would come by and visit , he never failed making her smile and bringing her Joy . I shall never forget how much sweetness and empathy he demonstrated to both my father and brother in 2004 , prior to their passing and later on , towards my Mom , being amongst the very few and very first to come and visit my Mom at DeKalb Hospital . No words will ever be able to fully describe what a Fabulous Man Fred was , towards each of his adopted family , the Franco family . We each loved him and shall continue loving him until we shall meet again one day in the Garden of Eden , with God's Power and Will . Amen .

“ More precious moments of the good old days when Fred and I would get together . What a Special and Unique Gentleman , Fred : an example of what a Good Man was meant to be by The Creator . Tu hermano de corazón, Salvatore

“ Fred and my entire family have known each other for at least eighteen years .During this interval each member of my family including myself , developed an ever increasing bond and camaraderie . He was and shall always remembered by me as my “hermano de corazón “ . His Goodness was extremely sincere and deep. A true Fine and Wonderful Gentleman . His smile was amongst the most genuine I have ever seen. He was extremely through in his undertakings and always willing to help , to listen and to give the most honest and wisest advice . His Persona and the values he stood for will forever be engraved deep in my heart and in my mind . I can openly say I was honored and privileged to have known Fred over the years , become his friend and later , his “hermano de corazón”. Fred , you suffered a lot in the last two years and the time has come for you to Rest Peacefully in The Lord’s arms , free at last of all terrestrial aches and pains . You shall always be remembered by me as one of the greatest individuals I have ever known in my 60 years and you shall deeply missed but , one Day, when the Almighty will call me , I am sure we shall meet again and this time , free of the weight of terrestrial problems. May The Lord Bless You , Protect You and Help You get your much deserved Rest . Tu hermano de corazón, Salvatore Franco
