“ My heart is heavy that I can't be with Kamini , Kushan and Hiruni today but I am there with them in spirit on this day when the world celebrates LOVE.Last year on Valentine Day you called and wished me saying that over there you wish all the people you love and today your body as we knew it will be no more. Many prayed for you and hoped and wished you will pull through and be back with us. There is a huge void that can't be filled for me too as no one will call me "akki" in that same tone so much like thathi's though he left us over 40 years ago. May your journey in sansara be trouble free and joyful!

I'VE SEEN FIRE AND I'VE SEEN RAIN....BUT ALWAYS THOUGHT I WILL SEE YOU AGAIN....

*With LOVE to you Malli
As always
Akki, Gully, Venu and Isuru*

“ * i hope that my words will be spoken out loud on your burial day*

loving can hurt.. loving can hurt sometimes.. but is the only thing that makes us feel alive.. its been a long time since you came into our little family.. but then you were the icon who stood up for everything, we wasn't afraid of anything because you were there as the protector.. well more than a protector.. all those lovely memories you gave us cannot limit to words.. you were an amazing character.. for those who dont know let me speak a few words about him.. mahasen bappa, my uncle spent his childhood up to the max.. having fun.. doing various stuff.. even his friends loved him.. he used to team up with his friends and prank others.. and do much more stuff.. as he grew older he became more stronger and started to learn more and more about responsibilities.. as a father he did everything that a father can do to his children.. kushan and hiruni you were so lucky.. and of course you also dear kamani amma.. mahasen bappa was the best husband that a woman can get.. he did every little thing to satisfy her.. and also as an uncle to me and my brothers.. he showed correct paths.. gave great advices.. and corrected us when we were wrong.. and also as a good brother to all his wife's sisters.. but now you are gone mahasen bappa.. and that emptiness and sadness will never be filled.. i just love you so much.. but didnt have time to tell it.. i hope you see my words.. you went tooo soon.. but taught us and gave a lesson.. WE ALL SHOULD LIVE THIS LIFE UPTO THE MAXIMUM.. CAUSE EVERYTHING IN THIS WORLD IS TEMPORARY AND SO ARE WE, LIVE THE MOMENT, FORGET ABOUT TOMMOROW, CAUSE WHO KNOWS WHEATHER WE LIVE TOMMORROW.. god bless you bappi.. your family is safe with me.. kushi and hiru will have a great tale to tell about GEORGE MAHASEN KOTALAWALA.. may you rest in peace mahasen bappa.. have a safe journey.. i love you

Hi Maha,

Your untimely demise is a great shock and sadness to all those who knew you and your family. And who shared all walks of life, and precious moments with you. Especially, all your friends and relatives from Sri-Lanka and abroad.

You came to USA to "This Land of Opportunity" with great expectation and hope, with courage and determination to provide a better life to Kamini, Kushan and Hiruni.

You worked tirelessly day and night to achieve this goal, and even though you're not here physically you're here in spirit and heart, and you have made a difference to your family and those around you.

Maha!

You can be assured, that your beloved wife and children will take heart and achieve all your unfinished dreams and goals.

May the Good Lord's tender loving hands bless, console and comfort your loving family, during this difficult time.

"May your soul rest in peace"
