

George Thomas Orr

April 11, 1930 - February 10, 2018

George Thomas Orr passed away February 10, 2018 in Orlando, FL.

One of eight children he was born April 11, 1930, in Asheville, NC. He is preceded in death by his parents Carl and Jessie Orr, his wife Joan Orr, three sisters, Zethia Enquist, Jo Warren, and Lucille Chavis, and one brother J.C. Orr.

Left to cherish his memory are his beloved service dog and best friend Seamus now adopted by the Jordan family, his devoted brother Franklin D. Orr (Shirley) of Asheville, NC and Haines City, FL, sister Clara Sorrells of Asheville, brother Earl Orr (Gladys) of Hamstead, NC, brothers-in-law Alvin Warren and John Chavis, a special nephew Tommy Mull, and several nieces and nephews.

Tom proudly served in the U.S. Navy from 1946 until 1949 and later retired from Sears and Roebuck Company. He was a member of East Side Baptist Church in Orlando, FL. Along with a passion for fishing and gardening, he was avid bowler. He and his brother Frank were on a traveling bowling team together and he won the NC Singles Bowling Championship in 1959.

A memorial graveside service will be planned at a later date in Asheville.
