

George Morgan Patterson

May 1, 1962 - April 8, 2019

It is with great sadness that the family of George Morgan Patterson announces his passing suddenly on April 8, 2019. George was born May 1, 1962 in Beloit, Wisconsin, grew up in Pine Hills and settled in Ocoee.

George is preceded in death by his beloved parents, Mary Ann Patterson and John Wright Patterson Jr. and brother John Wright Patterson III.

George leaves behind three sisters, Ruth Bowens (Guy), Sally Patterson, Susan Redmond (Steve) who loved him dearly. He also leaves behind one nephew, Joshua Bowens (Melissa), two nieces, Megan Brooks (Robert) and Heather Maxwell (Mickey), three great nephews, Alden Bowens, Carson Maxwell, Miles Brooks, and three great nieces, Eleanor (Ellie) Bowens, Taylor Brooks, and Malia Maxwell, as well as aunts, uncles and many cousins that will miss him dearly.

George loved to tell jokes and always kept you laughing. He was a retired carpenter and an all-around "Jack of all trades" always willing to jump in to help family and friends with house repairs, your car or you name it, he was ready to help.

George will be so sorely missed by all who knew him. He can never be replaced and will never be forgotten.

A celebration of his life will be held at a later date.

“ My heartfelt condolences goes out to the whole family. George my brother, I will miss you greatly. Growing up together and knowing you for over 50 years was quite the experience. Running through the groves, swimming in that awful little lake in the neighborhood , years of fishing together and all that time at the bowling alley. Memories I hope to never forget. You had a wild streak but a kind heart. You will be missed immensely.

“ George,

I wish you didn't leave this earth as soon as you did. I didn't get a chance to say thank you and goodbye. You were a super talented and absolutely hilarious man. Thank you for catching lizards with Alden and being the best swing pusher for him in the world. Without you and all of your help, Joshua and I would not be where we are today (at least not as soon as it was). I have so many memories of you and just laugh and laugh. My mom and dad said you were a great man and wish you were still here. Thank you for being a part of our life. We love and miss you.

*Love,
Melissa*

P.S. I bet Mr Mary is still blowing kisses at those darn squirrels.

“ JoJo, I miss you dude. I'm heartbroken that I didn't get to say goodbye. You've helped make my life so much better with all that you have done for me, Melissa and the kids. I can't stop thinking about your passing and how much I miss you. Who the heck am I going to drink crappy sweet tea vodka with now on Easter? Also, it looks like I'm going to have to carry the Patterson dumb joke torch. Great...

Wherever you are, just know we are thinking about you. One day I hope I could have just an ounce of the energy and determination you have. Maybe I'll start by getting some knuckle tattoos. Or maybe not, mom probably wouldn't like that.

Cheers, and godspeed. We love you, you crazy man.
