“ When the enemy death strikes your grief can be great. It's never the right time to say goodbye to a loved one. Death too to many seems to be a part of life. It's during times such as these that we can find comfort in the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6:9, 10 ~ "Our Father in the heavens, let your name be sanctified. Let your kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth". Only God's (Psalms 83:18) Kingdom can bring peace, happiness, perfect health, and everlasting life. “ Hi Ivan,

I remember when we were little and the mischief that you got into. Oh, how I wish we could do it all over again. This time, I will not take for granted our mischievous ways, but celebrate them time and time again.

Love you, brother Felix

“ In every culture, grieving families appreciate receiving comfort. The Creator of life also gives comfort to such mourning ones. The Christian apostle Paul stated in the Bible, that God “who comforts us in all our trials, so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial.” (2 Corinthians 1: 3, 4) True, divine help does not eliminate the pain but it can make it easier to bear. The Bible teaches that all those in the memorial tombs will be resurrected. Please read John 5:28, 29 in your Bible for comfort and hope.

You walked in the valley of death, but you did not walk alone for every step you took to leaving us drew us closer together in spirit and mind.

You will forever live in our hearts, and through the virtue of technology, live forever in cyberspace.

God bless you as you continue your journey into your next life.

We started as three and now we are one, but soon we will be whole again.

Love you brother, Felix and Emily
