

Gissella Mera-Cevallos

May 6, 1968 - January 16, 2022

Gissella Mera-Cevallos was born in Guayaquil, Ecuador. She was born on May 06, 1968. Gigi, as we all knew her by, was a loyal wife, a loving mother, a thoughtful daughter and a great friend. She was a caring and kind hearted person. Always putting her loved ones needs first. She kept her household well organized and most important she kept it full of love and hope. Gigi graduated college in January of 1990. She received an Associates degree in Arts. She dedicated herself to her son Max. Her focus was his education and well being. Her efforts are visible today. Max is a wonderful young man.

Giissella Mera-Cevallos passed away on Sunday, January 16, 2022. One of the saddest days of our life. Gigi is survived by her only son Maximus Cevallos, her husband Jose Luis Cevallos, her mother Margarita Martinez and her brother Mario Mera.

Gigi, you will be missed dearly. We will keep you in our hearts always.

“ Gigi was such a light in my personal life... My coach to be a better mother to my autistic son, my motivation, encouragement, mediator, the wise voice in my ear, and my shoulder to lean on..... near or far.... She was there. I have not known Gigi all my life, but she sure treated me as if I did. I have never met such a resilient, intelligent, and wise woman as her who was never afraid to speak her mind and always offered a kind word of advice.... Gigi you are missed more than I can put into words. Thank you for loving me and mine. My heart aches for my uncle and our beloved Max. May God help us carry the heavy weight of this grief. I have a faith we will see you again one beautiful day. Love you always, Vanessa and family
