

Glenn Michael Eddins

July 15, 1954 - May 5, 2014

Glenn Michael Eddins, 59, of St. Cloud, FL, passed away Monday, May 5, 2014.

Glenn was born in Holly Hill, FL. He grew up in an Air Force family, which he traveled across America in his youth. He lived in such places as Germany, Texas, California, and Florida. He finished schooling in California and graduated from Roseville High School.

Glenn was a plumber for the beginning of his career working in the Local Plumbers Union 803, helping to build places such as Disney and Epcot. For the later part of his career he worked as a Waste water Technician for the city of Orlando and St. Cloud. Glenn was an avid fisherman and loved being by the ocean. He also enjoyed cooking and working on cars. He will always be remembered as an honest man that always had a smile.

Glenn is survived by his parents: Gordon and Sara Eddins of Orlando, FL. His two sisters: Lenida Cortes, and Laura Catapano and his children: Glenn Michael Eddins II, Jeffrey David Eddins.

A ceremony will be held at 1:00pm May 8th, at A Community Funeral Home.
