“ Dad and I are saddened by the news of your Mother's passing.

We remember how she and your father opened up their home to Mom and Dad when we first moved to Florida on October 14, 1977. The family friendship has continued thru the years with them, your Aunt Nina, and Alberto.

Know that everyone is up in heaven rejoicing and welcoming her into their realm of Angels, who will continue to watch over your Dad and your family.

It will be our honor to be with you and the family tomorrow night.

May she continue to rest in peace and be a guardian angel to all.

“ Dearest Eileen, My deepest sympathies to you and your family in the loss of your beautiful momma...she was larger than life to me! I will always remember her beaming smile as she would literally light up any room she entered. She was always smiling and laughing and hugging everyone! I loved watching her dance ! As a young child, I remember flying up to NYC to visit her, and was amazed at how she prepared amazing food and wonderful treats. She took me around the city with Richie and Eileen, and showed me the sights and sounds of the city. Kater, when she moved to Orlando, I remember so many wonderful parties at my home with my dad and Gloria singing and dancing! I will always treasure my memories of Gloria! I know she is dancing with her son Richie and with my dad! Until we meet again dear Gloria, I love you always!

“ Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back at memories help comfort you tomorrow.

One of my fondest memories is from a loooooong time ago. When ya'll had a duck as a pet and a pull for him to swim in and sometimes it would run after us and we would all scream and laugh! I also remember a huge mango tree. I love ya'll, your in my prayer's always!

What a great memory!!! You are talking about Herbie, the mallard duck my brother found as a duckling. My mother used to feed him left over rice. That is probably why he flew away, lol. Thank you for that wonderful sentiment. It made my dad laugh when I told him what you said. Xoxo

“ I’m praying for comfort and consolation for you during this time. I know you are honoring Gloria right now and the full life she lived. She had her share of sorrows, but she always seemed to radiate joy around the family. I always found her full of life when I encountered her. She was a really dynamic woman and very exuberant. I know she will be missed.

Deborah Schaben - July 25, 2018 at 01:28 PM

Thank you so much Deborah. You are definitely right about my mom’s personality. She loved being around people. Xoxo

Eileen Davitt - July 30, 2018 at 07:45 PM

*“ My sincerest condolences Tutu. Losing a Mom is not for the weak or faint of heart. She is now free of pain and getting her angel wings to watch over all of you. I am with you in prayer now and always.

....Use your breath as an awareness of Life and death, simultaneously. when the breath goes out, it is associated with death, when the breath comes in, it is associated with life.

With every outgoing breath you die and with every incoming breath you are born. Life and death are not two things, separated, divided. They are one.

And each moment, both are present..
