

Gregory James Scurry

October 18, 1959 - September 5, 2019

Gregory James Scurry was born on October 18, 1959 in Lake Wales, Florida to Elinor (Dioguardi) Scurry- Burr and Donald Clady (both deceased). He was raised by his mom and step father Charles Wilbur Scurry (deceased) in Orlando, Florida. He has three siblings: Jeffrey Scurry, Martin Scurry and Helen Scurry-Russo. He has four nephews: Charles Martin, Evan Scurry, Austin Scurry, and Joseph Russo and one great niece Siryn Russo. He continued to live in the house he was raised in until his death on September 5, 2019.

Greg graduated from William R. Boone High School and went on to build and supervise the construction of pools for various companies throughout Florida.

He married Belinda (Ridgeway) Scurry and had two children Jessica Scurry and Cory Scurry (deceased).

Greg was an avid fisherman, boater, hunter, and overall outdoors man. He enjoyed riding his motorcycle and spending time with his friends and family. He attended many country music concerts during his life. He was a University of Florida Gator fan and a proud Boone High School alumni and parent. Greg coached many of his sons' sports teams from baseball to football.

Later in life he dated Joanne Wilson who was by his side with his fight with cancer. Greg fought long and hard to beat cancer. He is no longer in pain and in heaven with his son and parents.

A Celebration of Life will occur on Saturday, September 14th from 1pm-5pm at the home he lived in for almost all of his life. Please contact one of his family members or see Facebook for more details.
