

Hainchan Lall

August 25, 1954 - August 3, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of our beloved father and grandfather, Hainchan Lall, who departed this life peacefully on the morning of August 3, 2025, in Orlando, Florida, at the age of 70. He was surrounded by the love and comfort of his family.

Born on August 25, 1954, in Mahaicony, Guyana, Hainchan (also known as Chan) grew up on 2nd Street in the village of Success, East Coast Demerara. Hainchan was a man of quiet strength, deep character, and boundless devotion to those he loved. After immigrating to the United States, he built a life rooted in hard work, resilience, and generosity — values he passed down to his beloved grandsons.

He will be lovingly remembered by his daughter, Vanessa; his cherished grandsons, Justin and Jayden; his son-in-law, Jay; his grand-puppy, Teddy; and a wide circle of extended family and dear friends.

Family and friends are invited to attend the viewing and funeral services.

“ We only learned of your sweet father's passing today. Please know that Mr. Lall had a special place in many people's hearts at Valencia. He was a proud Puma until the end. We admired his determination to complete his degree and to set an example for his grandchildren of how important education is. We will miss seeing Mr. Lall, his cute bucket hat and his umbrella. Rest easy sir.

“As I write this I still can't believe that you're gone. You were our hero, our protector, now our angel. It's still a shock. You would have been 71. I had it all planned out for your birthday this year. I was going to get some treats for you because you loved your little sweets. We were supposed to go to your favorite restaurant since we didn't get to do it last year and have your favorite ice cream cake as you make a wish. Never did we think you wouldn't be here today. No one loved birthdays more than you. Home is not the same without you. Life is not the same without you. Every corner of home that we see reminds us of you. We wish we could wake up and see you doing all your little routines that you'd do. Each day that passes tears are shed for you. It feels like a nightmare that we can't wake up from. Daddy — we hope, wherever you are, you know how deeply we love you and will always love you forever with all our hearts and souls. We will miss you watching basketball with us and asking us who's playing and what's the score throughout the game. It was your way of spending time with us and we will miss those moments. Although we didn't get to see a Steph curry game together, Justin and I will make sure you see it through our eyes. We miss you asking Jayden a million times how do fix what's going on with your laptop. We miss you telling Teddy “nana loves Teddy”. We miss the millions of good nights that you would say to us each night before you went to bed and the millions of goodbyes before you left for work. We miss the way you'd play your piano and make us laugh. But most of all we miss everything that made you - YOU. If only we could (are our thoughts today)...but unfortunately God has called you home. Our only wish is that could have had more time to cherish you in this world. We pray that you can smile down on us, happy and proud. We don't want you to worry. As you would always say “that's alright, it's okay, it's fine”; just know that it's okay, it's alright we will be fine bc we know that you will forever be watching over us continuing to protect us and guiding us in all that we do. Wherever you are daddy/nana we hope that you're happy and celebrating your birthday. Just know that we will continue to celebrate your birthday each and every year although you are no longer here. We will carry you in all of our hearts and all that we do until we meet again, Daddy/nana. May you rest in eternal peace and paradise. You are forever loved and forever missed. We love you always and forever. Happy heavenly birthday 🕊️🎂🙏🕊️🌟
