“ Sleep with the Angels Uncle Gus. ”

Reading all of your family's memories brings a tear and a smile. We are so fortunate to have the kind of family that appreciate and cherish each other by telling and showing them while they are with us. Sending big hugs to all of you.

He really loved you guys and some of my favorite stories that he told were about him and your dad. Some funny ones too. He always had a special place in his heart and much pride for you and Steven and Patti.

“ I can remember when my sister and I were little and would sit with grandpa in his chair and do his hair. We would brush, tug and pull on his comb-over then put curlers in. He was always so patient with us and I will always remember that. I love you forever and will remember you always.

“ gus was a true gentleman. He was always quiet man , unless his favorite sport was on t.v. He came into our family when I was 11 years old. He married my sister and made her and her family very happy. I will always remember him going out shopping for valentine candy for all of his girls and for me too when I was visiting. I will miss you and your sunny smile. I know you are extra happy now that you are with the love of your life. RIP love you judi and pye too!!

“ Growing up, EVERY day when my siblings and mom would leave the house for where ever we were heading, we would say "Grampa, we're leaving!" And he'd come outside with us and say "bye I love you; be careful!" Then as we pulled out of the drive and drove down the street he would wave to us with his left hand and pat his heart with his right hand to continuously say I love you as we left. I'm going to miss little things like that. He was always kind, caring and considerate and he ALWAYS made sure we knew we were loved by him!

I'm so sorry to hear about Uncle Gus. Living far apart, I only met him a few times but always enjoyed the chats we had. He was very sweet and easy to talk to. We shared the same birthday too. You all have my deepest sympathy. Bless!

(I did put my name in as Cindy HOUGHTON Pierce Gauthier but the site cut out the Houghton).

I love this man with all my heart. He is the best father a girl could ever have had. He loved being a father, grandfather and great grandfather..He will be missed by so many.I am really blessed to have had this man in my life for all my years on this earth..I will miss him with all my heart..Go be with mom dad. You have earned your wings. I love you a lot..Shirley...

“ Every night before bed grandpa would always say "Goodnight, love you, see you tomorrow; Good Lord willing and the creek don't rise."

So, our family decided to have engraved on his headstone "The Damn Creek Rose".

I know grandpa is getting a chuckle out of that.
