

Harriet Grimes

March 30, 1929 - March 16, 2016

Harriet Neubieser Annis Grimes passed away March 16, 2016 at the age of 86. In her younger years, Harriet enjoyed spending time at the beach with family, friends, and her dogs Puffy, Duke, and Lady. Later, she loved going to Disney World, Universal Studios, and Sea World. Harriet especially enjoyed eating her way around the theme parks and watching the shows. EPCOT's Food and Wine Festival became a favorite annual tradition. While she was still able to travel, she loved going to Georgia to spend time with her son, Scott and his wife, Lonnie. Thanksgivings in Georgia with Scott, Lonnie, the grandchildren, and great-grandchildren were cherished memories. In later years when Harriet was no longer able to travel or go to theme parks, she enjoyed her Christmas tree which was kept up year round. Harriet, her son John, and his wife Jackie decorated it for each season. Although she would say each tree was the best, her particular favorites were the Mardi Gras tree and the Halloween tree.

Harriet will be laid to rest in the family plot with her parents and grandparents at the Beaverdale Memorial Park in New Haven, CT. She is survived by her children Scott Annis and his wife, Lonnie, and John Grimes and his wife, Jackie; grandchild De'Anne Bleau and great-grandchild Jacob Bleau-Ost, grandchild Darla Bleau and great-grandchildren Megan Smith and Abby Smith, grandchild Michael Bleau and great-grandchildren Andrew Bleau, Aaron Bleau, and Aiden Bleau, grandchild DeLane Annis and great-grandchild Aria Button, and grandchild Misty Finnegan and great-grandchildren Dylan

Annis and Teagan Finnegan.

“ I loved Aunt Harriet and feel badly that I didn't know she passed. She is in a better place and will be waiting with open arms when we see her in Heaven. This meant so much to me when I lost Becky. Hope you will find comfort in it too.

WE HAVE THIS HOPE sung by the King's Heralds written by Wayne Hooper, 1962

We have this hope that burns with-in our hearts, Hope in the coming of the Lord,

We have this faith that Christ alone imparts, Faith in the promise of His Word.

We believe the time is here, When the nations far and near Shall awake and shout and sing, Hallelujah! Christ is King!

We have this hope that burns within our hearts, Hope in the coming of the Lord.

We are united in Jesus Christ our Lord. We are united in His love, Love for the waiting people of the world, People who need our Savior's love.

Soon the heavens will open wide, Christ will come to claim His bride,

All the universe will sing, Hallelujah! Christ is King!

We have this hope, this faith and God's great love, We are united in Christ!

Praying for that day and being reunited with family members who left us behind!
