“Josef and I played club and high school soccer together and we were both lucky enough to have loving fathers not only dedicated to the beautiful game of soccer, but to us. Moody would celebrate my goals like he would celebrate his sons goals, that's how big his heart was. He had nothing but love for all of the guys on the team and would just be so kind and supportive all the time. He hosted many parties at his house where he would cook delicious filet mignon for everyone and be so upbeat and hospitable. Moody had a huge heart that lives on in the world through his wonderful children. Thank you Moody for being a part of so many great memories and for keeping my dad company in the stands. You will be missed.
