“ I am still in shock and don't know what to write. We met and became friends in 2007, when you first started shooting. From that point on, we kept running into each other while we were shooting alot of the same events over the years. You were always smiling and having fun. Luis would get us all together for dinners, birthdays and events. We even hung out at some house parties without our cameras, which was surprising. This just really sucks. I can't believe your gone. I wish we could have all hung out one last time. Most of us didn't even get to say goodbye. May your Soul Rest in Peace. Prayers to your son and entire family. Godspeed. One Light, One Luv 11:11 the Oneness.

“ I sit here not knowing what to write. You have been such a trusted and loving friend for over a decade. I remember the first time we went to Vegas together, and you were the only one in our group that was willing to sit with me when I was sick (not hung over). We have had so many amazing times from pool parties, to my wedding, from Vegas to nightclubs. You were always the life of the party. You treated every person as if they were the most important person in the world, regardless of how little you knew them. You had a way about you that comforted all around you. You were my go to person. Every problem that I have had in my life, since 2003, you have helped me through. You called me almost every day in February when my Father passed away just to see if I was ok. I cant explain the pain I feel. I pray for your entire family, and hope that I will be able to become a part of their lives in the future. As tears run down my face, I cant help but think that you would be the person I would call in this situations. I love you my friend. You are one of the only people I know that would say " I love you buddy" every time we got off the phone or were ending our time together. I apologize for my sporadic thoughts. I know I will see you again. Thank you for all the joy you brought me and so many others. I love you buddy!

He was the big brother-look-over-you-be-there kind of man... If you told me this story to try & keep Howie's name anonymous I'd know it was him! He had a way w/ simple words or phrases that put out fires! Well said! Reading many we all feel the same way! It's nice to know this; helps turn these tears to smiles knowing Howie was great to all

“ Howie always brought me laughs & changed every negative moment of mine to POSITIVE! Knowing my (military) pains he always said YES to early 3am breakfast, luncheons, & dinners! Oh God my friend could eat and drink DIET COKE! Smiles all day at the table! Counting (back) I have never had this many meals with a friend! He was true definition of a friend! “ My Heartfelt Sympathy to the Family and Friends of Hau. One of Hau's first Jobs was working at Card Cage at Miami International Mall. I was so lucky to have him work with me...later Hau transfered to Our Daeland Store and shortly became the Manager. Even as a Teenager Hau was a very Kindhearted Young Man, A Hard Worker with Excellent Customer Service. I will be forever grateful that Hau was a Very Caring Friend to My Daughter during their High School Years and thereafter. I am so Blessed to have known You! May You Rest in Peace Dear Hau. “ Nothing could have prepared us for our unexpected loss. Reading through every fb post shows us how many friends Howie had and the kind hearted soul he was to all who knew him. The Huynh family has created a fund to help with his final arrangements and to establish a trust for his son, Brandon. Thank you for your kindness. <https://fundly.com/the-howie-huynh-memorial-fund#>
