It is with deep sorrow and love that we announce the passing of Haydee Rosario Santiago, age 69, on September 28, 2025, in Orlando, Florida. Born in Mayagüez, Puerto Rico, Haydee built a beautiful life centered around family, faith, and compassion for others.

Haydee was the beloved wife of Anibal Feliciano, a devoted mother to Damaris Felix, Hector Torres, and Angel Felix, and a proud grandmother of 17 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her loving siblings Ramon, Zoraida, Isabel, Providence, Aida, and Margarita, as well as countless relatives and friends who cherished her dearly.

Haydee had a true passion for taking care of children and serving her community. Her warm heart and generous spirit touched everyone who knew her. She loved shopping, cooking, doing her hair, and spending time surrounded by the people she loved most. Her kindness, sense of humor, and vibrant personality made her a joy to be around, and her delicious cooking will be remembered fondly by all who had the pleasure of sitting at her table.
