

Heeradai Budhu

January 17, 1945 - March 8, 2014

Heeradai Budhu, 69, of Clermont, passed away March 8, 2014.

Om Purna-madah Purna-midam, Purnatt-purnam-udachyate; Purnasya Purnamaadaaya Purna-meva-avashishyate. Aum Shanti Aum Shanti hari om

My mother was one of the most amazing people
I have ever met and will probably ever meet.
She spent her life caring for others,
She never put herself before others.
She would often go out of her way to reach those who were in need.
She was also often a counselor when the times called for it.
We knew we could come to her no matter what the reason or circumstance.
We love her with all our heart and will truly miss her.

My mom shares with her children and grandchildren the most precious gift and that is knowledge of God, materials things can be taken away when you leave this world but knowledge of God stays with you birth after birth. Mom always said that we could be whoever we wanted to be. She was a person you could really depend on and was constantly supporting her children no matter what the circumstances is at that moment. She was our rock and will truly be missed not only her children, but everyone. She would sacrifice her own happiness for ours.

There are so many memories with my mom that come to mind so it would be next to impossible for me to pick a favorite. When her time was growing short in those last few days all she keep saying is how much she love her daughters and grandchildren. That will go in my memory bank as one of my favorite times with her. We were lucky to have such a great mother, and even luckier that we were able to spend so much time with her at the end of her life. We were luckier because her best friend of 45 years was here with us because she knew that was what we needed at that time.

Mommy is with us today in our hearts and will always be! Words can't express how much she meant to me and my sisters and grandchildren. I know she is watching us and is with us in spirit. Let us remember Mom as the loving person she was and celebrate the life of a great woman as we honor her memory today.

“ To the children of Lowie Mamie: Please accept my most heartfelt sympathies for your loss...my thoughts are with each of you and your family during this difficult time. Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts. I pray that the love of Lord Krishna enfolds each of you during your journey through grief. As the song lyrics go AAYE BHI AKELA JAAYE BHI AKELA , into this world we have come alone and in a similar manner when we take our exit we shall leave alone, when we do take a pause in life we realize this life is a very short visit to a mela this is a world of strangers no one is yours. As Lord Krishna himself said " whatever has happened has happened for good, whatever is happening is happening for good, whatever will happen shall also happen for good. What have you lost that you cry for. What did you bring that you have lost? What did you create that was destroyed? You came empty handed, and will go empty handed. Whatever is yours today, was somebody else's yesterday, and will be somebody else's tomorrow." Death causes grief and pain that will only heal in time, no words could heal what each of you are experiencing , but it is in the abode of Lord Krishna that Lowie Mamie's pain has been eased and her happiness is. So cherish her memories that even death can't take and find comfort in knowing that she is resting peacefully in paradise. With love from, nanda.

“ To my loving cousins Paad, Raj, Nalo, Kamo, Roma and family, we share in your sorrow as we've lost a GEM. Aunty Lowie was one of the most compassionate and loving person I know. She was always so funny-one memory I have of her was my wedding day as I walked down the aisle she said "Gyal suck your finger now"! That made me less nervous as I ventured down that aisle! Remember she will continue to live in all of you, the grandchildren and all the lives she's touched. We pray that she has found eternal peace and will continue to guide and protect you all, rest assured there's a lot of loving family waiting to welcome her with open arms. God Bless always, we love you all.

“ My Aunt was such a great role model. She would do anything for family. The strongest woman I know that lived to show an example. Raised 5 girls successfully as well as helped her siblings raised their kids. An unforgettable woman that carried everything on her back without showing her pain. We will truly miss you!!!! She was always there for everyone, always lending a helping hand. Always always helping and giving. She left her footprints in us all. Taught and showed us how to live positively and spiritually. She was one in a million. She loved us all, she loved her family!! Even in her last few days would fight to reach out to family. She raised me, my sister and brother... We are so lucky to have someone like her to call aunt, more like second mom. She was our guardian angel who watched us grow and was always there throughout our losses. Every milestone of our lives she shared with us. We will never forget you Auntie Lowie! God chose to take you now so you can rest at peace as you have completed your journey on earth. We were all born for a reason! To be someone that make a difference and touch people. She definitely did her part with helping, giving, teaching and loving.. I'm proud and always will appreciate everything she did for us.. May god take you to a better place my loving, beautiful Aunt. I love you, we will always love and cherish our memories of you.
