“ I worked with Paul for 15 years and there was never a dull moment. He introduced me to Bass fishing and we would get off work at the end of our shift in the middle of the afternoon and head to East Lake or West Lake Toho and fish until 10-11 that night and be back at work at 5:00 AM the next morning. Every time I pass those fishing holes, I think of me and Paul in his Boston Whaler fishing in a summer thunderstorm. Rest In Peace, ole buddy.

“ Paul was a gentleman with a kind heart for his fellow man (except for politicians and fish). I always enjoyed our conversations, his distinctive rusty voice will remain with me. Paul was well read and willing to share his insight on pertinent matters of the day. I always learned something talking with him. His love for his family, wife, children, son in laws and especially his grand children were well demonstrated and their love for him tells the store of Paul the husband, father and grand father. Paul was an outstanding fisherman but I knew him after those days had come and gone. I enjoyed the stories and will miss him.

“ Paul was a co-worker and a friend. Even though it has been a while since we last talked Paul is still a part of our memories and conversation. Charlie Cayll, Wayne Gustafson and I to this day reminisce about our fishing trips to the redfish hole and our walks across the prairie to fish the land locked rivers at the St. Johns river. I also worked with Paul for the better part of 30 years and it was always an adventure. Especially when the lead bucket caught on fire. Paul, Larry Smith and John Smith always had a way of putting everything in perspective, especially when it came to fishing. Paul, I know your up there at the old bull redfish hole just knocking 'em back. God Speed my friend.

“ Beverly and Family....my heart hurts for all of you. I am sooo sorry to hear of Paul's passing. I was shocked too by this news. Great picture you have of him on here. He looks really happy and at peace and that means everything! I know he will definitely be missed by all of us. I hope God blesses you all with wonderful memories and peace in your heart/lives going forward as you try to take all of this in. It has been 9 years since Mama has passed and I still miss her dearly everyday! I don't think you ever get past that BUT I know she is in Heaven with ALL of the Norman's now and being well taken care of. I love you all! Cousin Gayle Turman-Higgins in South Carolina
