

Hurline Saint Fleur

January 22, 1968 - April 15, 2026

Hurline Saint-Fleur was born on January 22 1968. She was the loving daughter of Marie Raymonde Louima and Henry Saint-Fleur, sister to Guy Marc, Marc Seden, Belinda, Steve, Sheila, and Christa. The niece of Augusta Normil, Ultride Jean Giles, Ulrick Jean Giles, Chimene Louima, Violette Louima, Willy Louima, Lucie Louima, Carmen Louima and Marie Gabrielle Louima-Arne, Ermancia St-Fleur, Emile St -Fleur and Antony St-Fleur. She was also a loving aunt to Markelle, Christine, Michelle, Jaden and Amara. Also cousin to Rawitz Guerby Petit-Frere, Dayanah and Tarah Auguste, Ernandy and Jerry Stern Arne, Olivier Martineau, Mathias Neymours, Lunise Ulysse and sister in law to Eliane and Yoldy St-Fleur.

Hurline touched the hearts of everyone around her as a hard worker. Always striving for success. She was born in Haiti and migrated to the United States in 1990. Anyone who knew her as a child knew she wanted to be a doctor. So, when she migrated at the age of 22, it became her life goal.

She graduated from FIU as a nurse, and in 2005, she graduated from UCF as a Nurse Practitioner. She continued her education by pursuing a medical degree (MD) until 2018. She was unstoppable and would have fulfilled her dream of becoming a doctor if it weren't for her unexpected illness.

Hurline was a devoted mother to Reginald Alexis and a loving wife to Alex

Narcisse. She dedicated her life to their well-being and worked endlessly to provide for her family.

A lover of life, she was passionate and ambitious, a music enthusiast, “A doc obsessed with chansonnettes française” her little sister used to call her.

She left a legacy of strength, resilience, and compassion; her ambition was contagious. Her family and friends will carry her memory in their hearts forever.

“ Hurline was a very close dear friend of mine. We went to elementary school together and became very close in 1989 while studying for the entrance in the faculty of Medicine at Port-Au-Prince. We spent a lot of years as very close friends. My heart aches from her passing. My deepest condolences to her beloved son and to her family.
