

Hyacinth Louise Knight Watters

August 9, 1949 - January 8, 2026

Hyacinth (Heidi) Louise Knight was born on August 9th, 1949, in Clarendon, Jamaica, of the late Gladys Blythe and Stanley Brown. She entered eternal rest on January 8th, 2026.

Hyacinth was a loving sister to the late Raymond Hall and a devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. In 1977, she journeyed from Jamaica to the United States to begin a new life in Brooklyn, New York, carrying with her strength, determination, and hope for the future.

In 1986 she gained naturalized US Citizenship while living in New York.

In 1992, Hyacinth relocated to Orlando, Florida, where she settled and created her forever home. She found great joy in caring for her prized garden, a passion that reflected her nurturing spirit and love for beauty and growth. Her home was a place of comfort, warmth, and love for all who visited. Heidi enjoyed practicing puzzles and loved spending time with her family. She never met a stranger and always made others feel welcomed.

She is survived by her beloved sons, Michael Allen, and Chris Knight. Her grandsons, Teriq (Maura) Allen and Immanuel Knight, her granddaughters, Natasha and Nadia Nugent; and her precious great-grandson, Bryce Allen.

Hyacinth will be deeply missed and remembered for her love, strength, and devotion to her family. Her legacy lives on through the generations she loved and created memories with.
