“ It was indeed very painful to learn of the passing of my dear friend Indra. I have known Indra since the early '80s through her brother-in-law, one of Guyana's Accountant General with whom I worked. One week before he passed away, he called me from Canada to tell me to assist Indra with any difficulties she may experience in some paperwork here in Guyana. Indra and I became very close to each other, she was always a loving, kind, and caring person especially to her children, brothers and sisters, and their families not forgetting all the "extended families". Her sweet smile and soft-spoken voice I will never forget. About a month ago, my husband and I spoke with her for over an hour and she was so excited and happy. I will never forget her last words to me, "when you gon come, come Nah and spend some time with me".
Sincere Condolences to her dear children, grandchildren, brothers, and sisters, and the entire respective families. REST IN PEACE, MY DEAR FRIEND. Shanta Bansavatar & Family.

“ Learning of the passing away of our Dear Sister-in-Law Indra who We would address as Data was shocking news. Data became part of our family through the marriage to our Brother John Karim. I remember very vividly my first interaction with her when John introduced her to our family. I was greeted with her charismatic smile which was one of the many loving and caring trade marks of her. Her customary Greeting of “Brother Roy” or “Sister Bibs” which was accompanied by her smile shall be indelibly printed in our memories. Data was the epitome of that loving and caring Mother, that Dedicated Wife, that Sister and Friend and whose shoulders were always there to lean on. She is the true representation of the bridges between different religions and cultures, and families and friends. These qualities are so evident among her children, grandchildren, family, friends and the various communities and church organizations where she played an active role. She shall always live in the hearts of all of us and her legacy shall continue. She shall be sadly missed. Our continued condolences to Andy and Family, Dianne, John, and all relations and friends.
Inna Lillahi Wa Inna Allahi Rajeeoon. (From God we came and to Him we shall return).

“ Aunty Indra was a very remarkable woman, she will forever be missed by all the people she’s crossed paths with.
She was an amazing mother figure to me even though she was my Aunt (Uncle John’s wife).
I’m sure she’s left many empty spaces in many hearts for the time she’s spent on earth.
May Her Sweet Soul Rest in Eternal Peace.
Gone but won’t be forgotten.

“ Indra was a wonderful person for I know her since she got married to John who were like family residing neighboring to my father and my uncle. She was kind , compassionate, respectful and loving to humanity. We lost contact fir a little while until me and my wife came to NY in 1984 and will never forget her kindness especially inviting us to her home on Green Avenue in Brooklyn. Indra and John offer us all the good advise and can be considered mentor for us in NY even getting a job where John was working. They will always invite us and stay in contact and even find us our first apartment in Bronx. Indra you will always be remembered for you kindness for you have live exceedingly well and tougher May lives. Safe journey to eternity and RIP wonderful soul.

Andy , Dianne and all the family stay strong for the emptiness left by Indra departure can never be filled . May God bless her soul and everyone
