

Israel Etshtien

July 14, 1943 - December 16, 2015

Israel Etshtien was born in Haifa, Israel on July 14, 1943. He passed away at home in Orlando, Florida on December 16, 2015. He is survived by his wife, Lydia Etshtien and his sons Tal Etshtien and Elan Etstein and wife Moran.

Israel had a personality that lit up a room. It was a demeanor unmatched by others who knew him. He made everyone laugh in any situation. His strength and devotion to his family resonated deeply and his funny and elaborate stories are still talked about by his friends and family.

Israel was a medic in the Israeli army and during the Six-Day War. In his youth, he was a professional basketball player on Hapoel Haifa and an avid fan of Maccabi Haifa, the New York Mets and the New York Jets. In the twilight of his life, Israel was able to celebrate the World Series of the Mets with his son, Elan and wife, which gave him great joy.

Israel was a frequent traveler with family and friends, where they had the opportunity to visit many countries worldwide and experience many wonderful vacations. His favorite cruise was the Windstar, where he and Dee enjoyed many unforgettable getaways.

The comedy Gods are weeping for Israel, but he is never forgotten.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the American Cancer Society
Children's Fund in the name of Israel Etshtien.

In loving Memory,
Dee, Tal, Elan and Moran
