“ My heart is heavy as I type this, because losing you has brought a sadness I can hardly put into words. Yet even in this grief, I find comfort in knowing you are no longer in pain and are finally at peace.

Thank you, Aunt Jackie, for loving me and my children so deeply and so effortlessly. Thank you for the countless memories that shaped my life —the adventures big and small, the rides to school, the difficult conversations I needed, and the encouragement you offered even when I didn't ask for it. You gave me wisdom, laughter, and strength, and you did it all with a full and generous heart.

*Your absence leaves a space in my life and heart that no one else can fill, but your love lives on in every story, every smile, and every lesson you've left with me. I'm so hurt and I'm going to deeply miss you, but I'll carry you with me always. Love you forever, your

“ Aunt Jackie,
When I received the news of God taking you home it really saddened my heart and I sat in disbelief and as I sat there I remembered our many conversations on life, sickness, good days and not so good days and how we were chosen. In all of this I had to sit a focus on all the GREAT times that we shared on Park Ave, wildwood new jersey and I will never forget the walk we took to mcDonald's and you introduced me to my very first quarter pounder with cheese and those memories I sat in and will continue to cherish as this life goes on. It took me some time to this point and the courage to share my thoughts and feelings. As I shared the news with my family everyone had their own unique remembrance of you that actually made me smile. You will truly be missed 😞💔 Psalm 121. MAY THE LORD ADD A BLESSING TO THE READING AND HEARING OF HIS WORD 🙏
