

Jacquelyn Denise Howard

October 24, 1996 - May 23, 2021

Jacquelyn Denise Howard of Orlando, FL was born on October 24, 1996 in Sodus, New York to the parents of Arthur H. Howard and Regina Ruth Brown.

Jacquelyn received her diploma at Boone High School and began her undergraduate education in Psychology at Valencia College in Orlando, FL.

Jacquelyn was an avid worshipper. She loved to sing and write music. She taught herself how to play the piano and the ukulele. She also liked to bake, craft, dance and vlogging.

Jacquelyn would vlog on her YouTube Chanel, JacqeeSmiles about HERSTORY. She would share her progress and feelings about her journey which later birthed a ministry allowing others healing and wholeness.

Jacquelyn was a beautiful young lady, inside and out. She had a sense of humor. You would soon realize she was goofy and just plain funny. She would always seek to make others smile even during the trying times she faced. Most importantly she was a strong lady, who fervently worshipped and had a personal relationship with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

She is predeceased by Willie A. Brown (Maternal Grandfather), Arthur H. Howard Sr. (Paternal Grandfather) and Coletha Howard (Paternal Grandmother).

She is survived by her Parents: Regina Ruth Brown and Arthur H. Howard; Siblings: Tishell (Nigel) Smith, Ashley Howard, Rachel Howard and Robert Howard; Grandparents: Eloise Brown and Winne Howard; The Sisterhood: Shaloni Ovalles, Samantha Carattini, Katherine Garcia, and Nyali Ovalles and a host of Uncles, Aunts, Cousins, nieces and nephews.

“ Jackie (what I called her) and I met on Instagram....we used to talk on the phone, not to often. But when we did, it was always so great! I called her my little sister and she'd call me her big bro. I kept wanting to come visit when it looked like things were getting more difficult for her....our last conversations were beautiful. I can't believe we never go to meet, she was....gracious, strong and kind! May her family peace be given peace...may God uplift and hold them. In Jesus name.

I'm honored that I got to know her. And as brief and light hearted as it was. Our talks held depth and truth in just about every topic we discussed.

What a jewel!

“ Jackie I will forever remember that beautiful smile and angelic voice. Regardless of what you were going through you always walked with dignity and grace. You're singing with the heavenly angels now, absent in presence but forever in our hearts.

“ Jacqueline,
Your beauty, your sweetness, your purity, is only matched by your inspired songs of worship. I will miss seeing your beautiful smile and miss hearing you sing. I know the angels in Heaven our rejoicing to have you join their Heavenly choir.

I know you don't know me but I briefly "met" your wonderful daughter thru Instagram. I'd always call her my little sis and she'd call me her big bro.....we spoke over the phone and thru ig a number of times. I'll be praying for you and your family, Jackie (what I called her) was incredible and I'm very sorry.

“Jacqueline, I remember you when you were a student at Tildenville Elementary. You were the cutest and the sweetest. I remember you sitting on the couch, your feet just lightly touching the floor. Years later, I was privileged to sing with you as you sang angelic melodies. Your testimony was sure and your love for God and others, strong. You were a gift to us all. We will miss you greatly!

*With Love,
