

Jada A. Carey

July 25, 1968 - May 14, 2022

Mrs. Jada A Carey “ That Lady”, eyes opened on July 25, 1968 to Roberta Marie Carey (Crump) and Lon J Carey.

The statement strong woman is an understatement , Jada is a Queen Warrior a Shero to many. She followed the word of god she would often recite As for me and my house we shall serve the lord “ Joshua 24:15

Jada has lived in many parts of the world from the East coast to West coast, finally settling in Kissimmee, Fl. working as a Financial Analyst and Debt Collective Consultant.

She loved decorating and having celebrations for just about anything she could invent to celebrate! A single mother taking care of her 5 biological children and host of many nieces, nephews, cousins, godchildren, grandchildren, any and everyone got to get some of Jada’s Love.

Jada’s spirit will forever live on through the many lives she’s touched and unbreakable bonds created.

“ 🥹🥹🥹🥹 Family isn't always blood. It's the people in your life who want you in theirs; the ones who accept you for who you are. The ones who would do anything to see you smile & who LOVE YOU no matter what.... And I must say we really love each other as sisters. I don't know how July 25th our birthday will ever be for me 🥹🥹🥹 I wake up looking to talk to my big sister as we did every morning at 6 am to only cry because there will be no more calls from my big sister to say we got this and to thank me for being your little sister and I say thanks for trusting in me and being my big sister I will forever love you!

Jada and I went to school together and got into a lot and with the grace of God we grew up and kept in touch. I invited her to my wedding May 7th and not one time did she complain as always. My daughter met her when she visited us when I hurt my leg and just like Jada she took my daughter shopping for her 6th grade graduation and ever since my daughter said I want friends like that... She was my friend, Angel and now she watches over me ☐☐

Jada you became a part of the Wright family from day one. When I heard of your passing it broke my heart. I felt as if I lost a child. Your light shall always shine until we meet again.

Sweetheart, your've earned your wings. Fly high and get your rest. No more doctor visits, tests, treatments and medicines for you. It was my pleasure knowing a beautiful and loving young lady.
