“ I wish I could be there more than I have. Aunt Judy know that all of our thoughts and prayers are with you. I remember the hospital when cousin James was born, and bringing him home from the hospital. Those first few days and the joy and laughter that his presence brought. I can only pray that he has left the pain he suffered behind and found that joy, laughter, and peace once again.

“ James was like a big brother to me and I'm going to miss him so much. James I know your watching over us in heaven and I want you to know you may be gone but never forgotten. You are loved by so many people and we are so blessed to have had you in our lives. May you rest peacefully in paradise my angel

“ James was my backbone my best friend and my confidante. He was my gay husband my brother and my sin. We took care of each other everyday. I had a shoulder for him and he for I. I'll never forget the last day at the hospital, he couldn't respond but he knew I was there his eyes lit up and his heart started to race. I told him I loved him and as he tried to talk back a tear fell down his face. I took him in as my child and I will never regret anything he and I went through. I love you James I think of you daily. I miss my nighttime talking buddy who made us laugh with his robust laughter. Since you always called me your other mother we wanted to tell you your brother Bebo n your sister Talya miss and love you.

Well said. He was always the perfect person to talk about anything. Even if it was one of my annoying convos he still listened. He is greatly missed. I could not get there to say my good bye but I feel he knew if I could of got there I would.

A life too short and the lost of a great potential. It make me wonder what could have been. May God give our family strength during this time of lost.
