

James Murray

December 3, 1937 - September 1, 2023

Jim passed away into the loving arms of our Father on September 1st, 2023. While his battle with Pulmonary Fibrosis was debilitating, he's now freely breathing celestial air with his beloved daughter, Jane, and all of those family members and dear friends that were there to greet him!

Among the things he loved were golf, the Miami Dolphins, boating, travelling, and a gathering where great stories could be told and laughter shared. It was said that he never met a stranger and relished the opportunity to meet new friends.

In his law enforcement career, he touched many lives both professionally and personally.

Left to cherish their memories of him are his wife Candy, his grandchildren Kyle, Samantha, Travis and Trenton and countless other relatives and friends.

“May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face, the rains fall soft upon your fields, and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.”

“ Learning of Jim's passing saddens me. I first met Jim in the summer of 1968 when I did my college criminology internship with the Miami PD. During that internship I rotated among the various units in the Department and found the Identification unit to be the most interesting unit--the "CSI" aspect of the unit was fascinating, and Jim made it so. Many years after my internship, when I was a federal investigator, Jim gave me some advice in a case involving a fingerprint issue. His advice was very helpful in achieving a successful prosecution. Although Jim and I lost touch over the years I've never forgotten him--a gentleman and a friend. My condolences to Candy and family.

“ 10/2/2023

I only became aware of Jim's passing, belatedly, on 30 Sept. But I must immediately add my most sincere condolences to Candy and Jim's family.

I, too, have known Jim since the early 1960's, when we both were active in the FDIAI. As time progressed, I moved away from Florida, but maintained my involvement with both the FDIAI and the IAI, and re-connected again with Jim & Candy. We enjoyed many both serious and fun occasions with our continuing membership activities in those organizations, until my retirement, when we again lost contact.

Jim, you will forever live in my memories for all that we shared over these many years. RIP my friend, you perhaps will never know, nor realize, just how many lives you have influenced. Good Job! Well Done!

“ *My Dear Friend Jim today had his memorial Mass today. You have been my closet friend for fiftyseven years.
This is my final tribute to you, your Beautiful Wife Candy, and your family my friend.*

WE LOOK BACK AT OUR LIVES.

WE HOPE THEY'VE BEEN WELL LIVED, AND WE STILL LOOK FORWARD TO CONTINUING TO HAVE GOOD TIMES BECAUSE THEY EXIST AT ALL STAGES.

WE CONTINUE TO DEAL WITH WHATEVER IS GOING ON IN THE PRESENT AS WE GO ABOUT THE BUSINESS OF THE DAY. LIFE IS GOOD, IT IS HARD AT TIMES, AND IS ALWAYS REAL. EVERY NUMBER WE REACH SHOULD BE A PLUS, BUT FOR SOME IT IS NOT.

WHEN TRAGEDIES OCCUR, WE HURT.

OUR WOUNDED HEARTS MUST MUST HEAL, AND THEY WILL, BUT NOT WITHOUT LEAVING SCARS.

SCARS ARE PROOF OF SOMETHING THAT WAS ONCE A RAW OPENED WOUND.

WE ALL HAVE THEM.

WE CAN LOOK AT OURSCARS AND REMEMBER EACH INCIDENT THAT CAUSE THEM.

THOSE ON THE INSIDE DON'T REQUIRE REMEMBERING A PARTICULAR INCIDENT.

THEY SYAY WITH US ALL THE TIME.

Jim, your scar on my heart will be with me forever.

Love my friend,

John Lazzaretto

Sorry for the misspelling in the first sentence in my tribute to Jim, it should have this first sentence in it.

My Dear Friend Jim today had his memorial Mass today. You have been my closest friend for fiftyseven years.

It was a long day!!!!

“ *When I first met Jim we attended rival high schools, played sports against each other, and quickly became good friends. That friendship has grown stronger over the years and now includes our wives Candy and Nancy. Jim felt blessed to have Candy in his life. We feel blessed to have them in ours. He is truly missed.
