“ It's been a year since we lost Jim but he will always be in our heart. He was a very tender and compassionate man that really lived a simple life so he can spend more time with everybody. He was known by all in our neighborhood in Egan Dr, the last house where he lived, because he was so friendly and full of energy. He was a real trooper, I've never forget all his tales about Vietnam or all his history lessons, he taught me so much about the United States that really took an impact of me because as an immigrant I came to appreciate where I live now and what future I can give to my son. Me and Will named my son after him because he was such a good friend who gave us a hand when we needed the most and for that we're forever grateful. Rest in peace Jim that you really have done more than so many people and I know Jehovah keeps you in His memory waiting to resurrect His righteous people and I know you are one of them, you really sacrificed your life for your friends and that is the perfect example of love. Love you Jim.

“ In the eight years that I knew him he became a good friend and a father figure for me. He treated me as if I was his own son. He helped me out in many ways over the years. He was the most compassionate man I ever met. He has a profound affect on my life, And I will be forever grateful.

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting my Father-In-Law James in person but I had the honor of sharing many phone conversations with him. The last conversation that we had was of him letting Nathan know that he did a good job picking me as his wife. This was a very special and heart warming moment that I will never forget for the rest of my life. He was a very sweet and kind man that could talk for hours but that was what I liked best about him. His son, Nathan Russell, loved him very much! Rest In Heaven James Lee Garland Russell Jr.

“ To the Russell Family:

We want to offer our condolences and to assure the family of James Russell of a wonderful hope that the Bible offers. The Bible makes the promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15. It also tells us that death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4) You can believe this because God is the creator of life and He is certainly capable of restoring it. He has resurrected people in the past and is eager to do it again. (Job 14:14,15). He will resurrect them here to the earth and you can see them again without having to die. My hope is that you take comfort in these promises and that it can in some way ease your pain at this time.

God Bless you all!

“ A very special memory that Flossie and I have of our brother is when we were driving to Florida to spend Christmas with Grandmom and Grandpop Filer Jimmy drove all of us (Mom and Dad and Flossie and I) in his car (it was a very big car) and he told us stories about the green and purple turtle and i think it was an orange and pink elephant jumping out onto the highway and he would swerve the car as if to miss them but Flossie and I were too short to see and of course believed they were on the road. But then on christmas morning we both got small banks from Jimmy that resembled the elephant and turtle that he told us about. He was always joking with everyone.

Jimmy: I Love you and will miss you. We may not have been very close in age or as siblings are when growing up but you will always be my big brother and always in my heart. May God give you peace. Love your sister Alice.
