“ I remember my dear cousin James coming to visit us often when we lived in Griffin Park. He seemed more like an uncle rather than a first cousin because he protected us and helped fill the gap with extra attention, interest, and affection when Mom and Dad were busy. When I moved to Washington, D.C. he showed me around the city ensuring I knew the ins and outs. You will be deeply missed my dear cousin. Rest in peace.

Unfortunately it had been a while since I'd seen my dear cousin and some of the specific memories have faded, I do remember feeling special and protected in his presence. I also thought he was one of the coolest cousins I had! Rest in peace and power ❤️
