“ My family and I have been truly saddened to hear of your passing. You have been coming to my restaurant for 20 years or more at least once a week or every other week. You brought your family in and recommended me to your customers and friends. You were always happy to see us busy and would say that to me especially during the recession and the major road construction. Many of nights my sisters and I would sit and talk with you at your table when you came into the restaurant. We talked about politics, sports, news events, family issues or about life events and laughed about a lot of things. My storefront windows are starting to get dirty and I know I must clean them soon but can not for now as I know I will start crying when doing them so. I am crying now as I type this. Jim, this should not have happened. The person who did this should have been in jail as he has been arrested 5 times since 2009. Our legal system has failed us. It is the responsibility of the state now to seek the right punishment. They owe it to you, your family, and your friends. When the time comes, whether it be 10, 15, or 20 years and I am still alive I promised myself I will be a witness to it when the state carries out its punishment. We all loved you and will miss you deeply Jim. When my time comes I hope we meet up on the other side. We offer our condolences to the Watrous family. Peter, Anna, Palma, Maryann, Bobby, Lisa and the Palma Maria Restaurant employees.

“ This past week has been a solemn one for me. In 1987, Jim and Rita arrived in Central Florida. They became a part of my home fellowship and, I'd like to think, good friends. Jim was "rooted and grounded" in the Word and faithfully admonished me in order to make me a better leader. Then along came Jessica. I can still remember her sitting on the floor listening to me share from the Bible. (Jim was quick to point out to me to observe how she reacted to my voice and mannerisms). In the fall of 1989, I and my family would move to Deland. Though only 35 miles away, it may as well have been Mars. Sadly, we would seldom see each other, and I can honestly say, 25 years passed without a word between us. Still, here I am, remembering the "sweetness" of a good man, whom I will see again ... one day ... forever.

“ Jim was a wonderful loving man who was not only my boss, my friend, and my mentor, but more importantly also my brother in Christ. I met Jim in Cincinnati many years ago. He moved to Orlando and I also moved there a little later. I went to work for him and he taught me a lot of what I know and practice in business and life today. He was a man who God's word calls a faithful man. We had a few projects workwise that took between 4-6 hours and that was many times when he would teach me the great truths of God's word and the application of them. Also, every Friday which was "payday" he would always check with me to make sure I was blessed and spoke God's word to me! That was actually the real payday as I reflect on this time. Money comes and goes, but the things that he taught me will not only last and benefit me now, but throughout all eternity. I will be forever indebted to him for this time he took out of his life to love me and teach me how to be a better believer and how to walk with God, not only in all of life's situations, but also in business with honesty and integrity! Jim was a perfectionist when it came to everything he did! A great example of God's love and patience. Jim was also a great father to his 3 girls Jessica, Anna and Becca. I am looking forward to seeing him in his new body on that great day when the shout and the trumpet happens and we are all gathered together with our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ! You will be and are surely missed. I love you my faithful brother in Christ. Owen Fitzpatrick

“ I am thankful for the time we got Dad. I am grateful for your advice and love. You were such a great father. We were truly blessed. Thanks for teaching us about God and His Word. I don't know how I would have been able to handle this without Him.
LOVE TREMENDOUSLY

Amen. Everyone knows what a good man you were and even in the toughest of times and no matter the cost you always did what was right. Brianna and Madison adored you and lit up even at the sound of your name. You always gave great advice and always listened. We love you!

“ Hi, Chris Curtis here. Jim & I have known each other since our days at Arthur Hill High School in Saginaw, Michigan. Jim & I both became involved with the Christian Ministry years ago.

Jim has always been an honest, hard working man who refused to compromise doing what was right. He was a good father, a man who loved God. He was kind, gentile and thoughtful. He was a great friend whom will be missed.

May God Bless his daughters families and their children. The father andgrand father will be greatly missed.

I know Bob, John, Pat & Pam and their dad Bud will miss his son & their brother greatly.

Thankfully, we have the HOPE to look forward to which brings comfort at a timr of sorrow like this. IThessalonians 4:15-19.

May God Bless each of you and may God be with you and comfort your hearts

*Thanks & God Bless
Chris A. Curtis*

*We can cry with hope
We can say goodbye with hope
'Cause we know our goodbye is not the end
And we can grieve with hope
'Cause we believe with hope
There's a place by God's grace
There's a place where we'll see your face again
We will see your face again....*
