“ Jamie, so happy I got to meet and call you my step daughter. The few times we were able to see and be with you were times I will always remember. You made me laugh, you have such a unique laugh that every time I think of you I could hear you laugh. The day of BJ's was the very best time I had with you because we both laughed and even when we got to the house we were still laughing and watching with your Dad the funny comedian guy (which right now I can't remember his name) we died laughing us three together. Jamie thank you for making us laugh your dad and I needed that, we needed someone to cheer us and you did that. We love you and you will be truly missed. Until we meet again someday up in heaven. <3 <3

“ You know that one friend that breaks you out of your shell when you're young? Shows you the underground life ropes... My partner in crime corrupted me, if you will and I wouldn't have it any other way. I fell in love with my beloved 'hure' and there are simply no words to describe the pain and despair caused by your passing. As for memories, 'Daytona with a donut' 'Miami in a hemmy' and 'Anti Wallace week' is all I can say. I will love you always. Heaven has gained a beautiful Angel. I will NEVER forget you.

“ It's been so hard these last couple of days. When I'm turning on the light to make my coffee in the morning I look over to see if your there tossing & turning. I cut the grass today looking for cigarette butts but none to pick up. I cry on my job sites because there's so many memories good bad ugly. No matter what, the LOVE I have for u as a sister-in-law is unconditionally. I played some Mobb Deep today because outta the collection I have you'd loved them most. I try to be strong but no matter what I find a corner by my self & break down. Memories will always live on. Everywhere I look I see a resemblance, a person, a shadow of u. I know it's not my mind it's the LOVE I have for u. No matter what I do in life. I'll make sure that everyone keeps a special place for u in their hearts as a reminder of what a beautiful loving person u are. I Love u always. Your Bro Phil.

“ Remember the night we drank the 4 locos and we sat on the back porch of Yvonne's house we were laughing and acting a fool we got in so much trouble by titi bon....she was so mad at us cause we were so loud (we are always loud well you more than me) we were eating BBQ chips (which I hate) and we were throwing them at each other....remember Yvonne beat us with the broom for making a mess. I was never allowed to drink 4 locos again after that night.....someone said I got violent!! LMFAO...sister.....you were the craziest Bitcha I knew and even though we fought and we may have not talked like we should have.....you knew you could count on me and I knew that even if you had nothing to give you would always have my back and you would fight anyone for your family. Like Yvonne said....I hope mommy was waiting with open arms for you (honestly i hope she smacked you when you got there...lol) but remember to watch over us always and I swear on my last breath that we will make sure your kids are always taken care of.

*Don't cry at my grave cause I won't be there.
I'll be in the breeze that ruffles your hair.
I'll be in the sunshine. I'll be in the snow.
I'll be in the places where we used to go.
I'll be in your laughter, and in funny things.
I'll be in your shadow, and there in your dreams.
I'll be in your greeting, but not your goodbyes.
I'll be the reflection in your loving eyes.
I'll always be with you and I'll always care,
So don't cry at my graveside cause I won't be there.*

“ Me and titi would always find a way to make something funny, we'd always laugh, we did so much together, she'd always ask me for a pillow when she'd come and stay the night or just ask me for some clothes , I never thought that she would go so soon, I miss her like crazy and I love her so much, I keep hearing her laugh in my head. Some of the things i'll never forget and I know she's going to be there to help me get through this all. We were always the closest & sang every song we possibly could together. Rest In Peace titi , you wont be forgotten ❤️

“ My most favorite memory with titi would have to be the time we were going to the dollar movie theater with her and the kids. So when we got thier her kids were acting a little crazy and i was laughing, so the movie got really quiet and they asked us a question and we yelled at them and then right after we both started to laugh because everyone was looking at us. We left the theater and we got in the car and the radio wasnt working so we used my phone and all i remember is us singing the whole way home and laughing.

“ My baby Sister, oh how I will miss you! You and I had a way of laughing at the most ridiculous things. We had so many good times together. We partied, we fought, we yelled, we cried, we hit each other, but most of all we LOVED each other. I swear most days you thought I was your mother not your sister. I can count the times you told me "Okay Mother". You had a huge heart and you loved big. You were the crazy aunt my girls loved so much. They will miss you tremendously. I will miss you and love you forever and always. I will remind your babies every chance I have that you Love them so much and all you ever wanted was for them to be happy. I hope Mom was there to greet you with open arms. I love you Sister. Forever and Always.

“ My Lil primita that taught me so much when we were kids. Geez... all my memories were amazing childhood memories, I have very few adult memories with you but the ones we have are definitely unforgettable. You gave me an amazing gift and that was trusting me with one of your beautiful babies our princess Layla. I will always cherish our memories and never forget the beautiful soul you were. We all have our ups and downs but one thing the women in this family have is heart and although you are gone your beautiful heart is still in our memories. Love you prima/hermana. R.I.P.

“ What can I say she is my baby sister, when she was good she was great and when she was bad she was real bad! All in all no matter what she was an awesome human being - she was an awesome sister she loved me unconditionally and she looked up to me and knew that no matter what she could always talk to me. I am going to miss you like all hell but I swear I will make sure your babies are happy I will do whatever I can to help them grow up the way you wanted. I love you little sister may you be resting peacefully and with our mom, Abuelo, and two Uncles. Sister until we meet again please stay with me visit when you can and I know you will be the best guardian angel ever. I love you forever.
