

Jane Murray

July 29, 1963 - September 15, 2019

Our sweet Jane passed away into the loving arms of our Father on September 15th, 2019. While her battle with cancer was fierce, she never stopped living her best life.

Among the things she loved were the beach, a good margarita, and anything pink and sparkly. And while she lived in Florida for most of her life, she never lost her love of LSU football and proudly wore her purple and gold every chance she got.

In her career as a radiation therapist she touched and saved many lives. The light of her life came from her boys, Travis and Trenton, who supported her in her final days with love and courage beyond their years. Left to cherish their memories of her are her boys, her father Jim and mother Candy, and countless other relatives and friends. To know her was to love her.

A Memorial Mass will be held at Most Precious Blood Catholic Church on Saturday, October 26th - 10:00 a.m.

There will also be a Celebration for Jane Murray's life on Saturday, October 26th from 4 – 7 p.m. Radisson at the Port - 8701 Astronaut Blvd., Cape Canaveral, FL 32920. Dress is Casual - Please RSVP to Jim & Candy Murray: cmurray1@mindspring.com or 407-810-6112

“ Although I knew Jane for a short time, I am so sorry for her family’s loss. We met when I enrolled in a commuter service from Orlando to Tampa; we were working at the VA hospital in Tampa while living in Orlando. We had lively conversations during those drives with our other riders. Eventually, Jane was selected for a position at the VA hospital in Orlando & I was chosen for a position at the Atlanta VA Regional Office but we stayed in touch by email and Facebook. I am deeply saddened to learn of her passing

“ I went to high school with Jane. Although I didn't know her as well as I would have liked to at the time, I knew that she was well liked and respected by our peers for her kind heart and outgoing personality. Years later, after I moved to Texas and she moved to Florida, we reconnected via Facebook. I was delighted to discover that she was still that same sweet soul, with an even bigger heart. She now had a family of her own, with two fine sons, giving birth to one and life to both. My thoughts and prayers will be with Jane's sons, her parents and a host of family and friends, as she will be missed by all.

“ Jane and I knew each other in high school, but really became friends in Orlando in the last few years. I was honored to be able to spend time with her and help her. She always had such a positive outlook and a beautiful spirit. My prayers go out to her family and friends. I will miss her very much.

“ I’ve known Jane since 9th grade and shared so many memories with her. She was in my group and always one of my closest friends. She’s in all my high school memories. She was a great person, a kind soul and I’ll never forget her laugh or her smile. Until we meet again. My condolences to her boys and her parents.
