“ Johnna and Jana, I didn't know your mom passed until I saw your names on FB. Your mom knew me as Cheryl Kelley. I have long since been divorced and remarried and moved to NC. I am on FB as Cheryl Naylor Taylor. Your mom and I were in circle together at Conway UMC. She made the Christmas Stockings for me that I still use. She was an amazing lady who loved you girls and your dad very much.

“ *When the enemy death strikes your grief can be great. It's never the right time to say goodbye to a loved one. Death too many seems to be a part of life. It's during times such as these that we can find comfort in the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6:9, 10 ~ "Our Father in the heavens, let your name be sanctified. Let your kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth". Only God's (Psalms 83:18) Kingdom can bring peace, happiness, perfect health, and everlasting life. “ I am sorry for your loss. But is not the end. Is a question that Jehova has the answer in the Bible. Can the dead really live again? He say: "There is going to be a resurrection" (Acts 24:15) What that can mean for you: Comfort when loved ones die, Freedom from a morbid fear of death and a real hope of being reunited with your dead loved ones. Those words help me when I lost my father. Jehova has resurrected humans in the past and He is eager to do it again. That is a good reason to beleive what the Bible says. Can you please read John 5:28,29 with your Bible? That is the most beautiful promise from Jesus, Jehova's son. Knowing about His promise, can give us the comfort we need every moment.

“ Jana, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. I love the red nail polish in tribute! You are an amazing woman, and from what you've shared about your Mom, it is no wonder that you are.

I hope the love of family and friends surrounding you right now helps ease the pain you feel in missing her. Know that there are people 'round this world also sending you love, hugs, and hopes for strength and calm. <3

“ John, Johnna and Jana...I'm so so sorry. I will always remember when we girls were little and being at your home playing..A good part of my childhood was spent with Johnna growing up together. Mom and I have wonderful memories from the old neighborhood and the good days back then and they will always be treasured!
