

Jeassea Rivera

June 30, 1982 - August 1, 2016

Jeassea, whose name means Sea of Crystals, was born on the 30th of June of 1982. She made her mark on our family with her happiness and candid eyes, which were the windows to her soul.

Her humility and humor is what set apart her wonderful personality. Although she was a bit shy, Jeassea had a most special grace about her. She loved all types of music, including salsa, reggaeton, as well as, ballads which lent to her love of romance. We remember her smile, her passion and creativity in the kitchen.

Jeassea was a wonderful mother, daughter and sister. She is survived by her son Jadrien, father Edgardo, mother Veronica, and younger sister Liz. She will also be missed by a large extended family. Jeassea's love of her family is what many will fondly remember.

Jeassea loved God and her faith sustained her. We know that she has joined God in heaven. Although we are now deeply saddened by her loss, we are comforted in knowing we will see her again.

“ My dear and sweet Jessie, even thou is hard for all of us to understand and accept the fact that you are no longer with us here, I know that God has called you to His side because His plan for you here within us has been completed. We will miss you very much. You always demonstrated love and compassion towards everyone that came in contact with you. We love you and I know we will you soon. My dear Veronica & Edgardo my condolences and prayers are with you and all of the family. Love you all!!! R.I.P. Jess

“ My dearest friend, my sister how hard to believe you are no longer with us. That all we have are our memories. One memory I have is when I was giving birth to my daughter and you were in the delivery room with me. You saw my sweet little girl come to this world and was the first to hold her. You help me decide on the name she has because you knew how strong will she would be. You thought my little girl so many things and I am going to miss you so much. May you RIP.
