

Jefferson Dell Herndon

August 4, 1983 - July 28, 2018

It is with great sadness that the family of Jefferson “Jeff” Dell Herndon announce his passing on July 28, 2018 at the age of 34. Jeff was born August 4, 1983 in Orlando, Florida to Carol and Charles “Chuck” Herndon. He attended Colonial High School and graduated from Timber Creek High School.

Jeff will be remembered as a loyal, caring, and sensitive man. The most important thing to Jeff was family. He never missed a birthday or holiday and attended many of his nephews’ and niece’s sports and school events. Dressing up for trick-or-treating with his nephews and niece is a memory they will cherish forever.

Jeff never knew a stranger; making friends with anyone he met. He was unbelievably kind, loving and always put others’ needs before his own. He was known to distribute food to the homeless on walks around Lake Eola and never hesitated to help friends in need.

He enjoyed attending basketball camps with his cousins when he was young, playing on his high school basketball team, and watching basketball whether in person or on television. He loved to spend time outdoors including swimming, canoeing, going to the beach and working out. If he wasn’t with friends or family, he could be found at the gym. He was passionate for all animals but especially dogs. He was also very inquisitive and enjoyed watching documentaries.

Jeff will be forever remembered and loved by his mother, Carol Lauten Herndon, and his sisters Michelle Forsyth and Leslie Schnell, his brother-in-law Matteo Forsyth, nephew Colin Forsyth, niece Daniela Forsyth, brother-in-law John Schnell, nephew Jackson Schnell and his beloved aunts, uncles and cousins. He was preceded in death by his father, Charles Dell Herndon.

The family asks you to share your memories of Jeff on this page. We appreciate your prayers during this difficult time.

“ I know I’m a little late. But I miss you Jeff. A lot. You taught me a lot about life with in the year and a half of knowing each other. I watched a documentary last night and I had to pause it because it reminded me of the times we would binge watch weird documentaries and talk about them for days. I miss our gym time together and how we used to people watch while we walked on the treadmill. I miss how kind and positive you were. I miss the embracive hugs and how proud you were when I completed my work out. I miss you a lot friend. We would talk for hours on the phone laughing and sharing to each other about our day, I miss our casual conversations. I miss you a lot.

“ After not seeing you for over 13 years, we so happened to run into eachother in a place filled with over 100 people. We spent only a few months talking back and forth non stop but it felt like a life time.. you had such a big heart, your mind always full of wonder. Jeff loved his family especially his nieces and nephews he talked so much about the love he had for them. The hug he gave me on Friday was unforgettable. Jeff you will forever remain in my heart. Your smile will always remain in my mind, your words of kindness and your encouragement will never leave me and you will forever be in my prayers. Here is a photo where he was asking me how he looked with his new haircut 😭 .. I miss you Jeff. RiP dear friend 💔

“ I’m here on the beach thinking about you Jeff. I have lots of memories when you were little. You’re dad was so proud of you. I remember how he would often dress you in Miami dolphin outfits. As you got older I remember watching you play basketball with Matthew, Michael, and Chris. I was always jealous of the closeness all of you had. With time, you grew to be such a tall and strong young man. Every time I saw you, your arms were bigger! I can still hear you laughing as you told me stories of your jobs. You were such a hard worker. Your laugh was so genuine and contagious! You were also very loyal and protective of family. If I ever needed something, I know all I had to do was call you and you would be there to help no matter what.

It’s so hard for me to believe you are gone! I have nothing but wonderful memories of you. I will think of you everyday and remember just how wonderful a person you were. Anyone who was lucky enough to get to know you understands how this world was a better place with you in it. Now that your free of the bonds of flesh, you are truly a free spirit.

“ Jeff,

It's hard for me to even formulate what to write here. I remember watching you, my brother, Matt and Michael play basketball for hours at either my house or the Kruppenbachers and that's where I feel you were your happiest. I looked up to you boys so much, and continued to do so as we grew older. Your knowledge of health and fitness was something that I was always in awe of. I loved coming with my dad to 24 hour fitness and watching you work out for hours, and help

People when they had questions. You no doubt had such a loving heart and were willing to help people whenever they needed. I hope you knew how much you meant to each of us in the family. We will truly miss you Jeff. Love you so much.

You always wanted to help others and as soon as you learned Johnerick was attending the Police Academy, you shared with me your interest to help him build his body for it. I will cherish your caring and sweet heart forever and forever will hold it in my heart. Until we meet again ❤️

“ Jeff-

Your smile would light up the room. I have many fond memories from our childhood. Spending summers in Annapolis, making pizza with your mom, watching you, Chris and Matt play basketball. Being the oldest cousin, I was fortunate enough to babysit all of you. The time I remember the most is when you were 4 years old. Your mom had to stay in the hospital with Leslie and you, Michelle, John and I stayed home. We all snuggled together in one room, laughed, played games and ate whatever we wanted. John and I had to fly home before your mom and Leslie came home. You were not a happy camper that I was leaving. We had a special bond from that day forward. You were a beautiful person inside and out. Life will never be the same without you. I am comforted knowing that you are with your dad, my dad, grandma and grandpa. I love you Jefferson Dell!❤️
