

Jennie Marquez-Gregory

February 14, 1959 - August 29, 2025

Obituary

It is with deep love and heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Jennie Marquez-Gregory, a devoted mother, cherished wife, proud grandmother, and dear friend to so many. Jennie was a woman of remarkable strength, compassion, and resilience who touched countless lives. She left this world on August 29, 2025.

Born on February 14, 1959, in Manhattan, New York, Jennie lived a life filled with warmth, generosity, and joy. She dedicated herself wholeheartedly to her family, always ensuring her home was filled with love, laughter, and the comforting aromas of her cooking. Her kitchen was the heart of her home, where she poured love into every meal and welcomed family and friends to gather, celebrate, and share in her creations. She loved to entertain, making everyone who entered her home feel like family.

Beyond her love for cooking, Jennie loved singing and dancing. At family gatherings, weddings, or even in the comfort of her own living room, she lit up every space with her joyful spirit and graceful steps. Her laughter was contagious, her smile unforgettable, and her gift for making others feel truly loved was one of her greatest blessings.

Jennie also took great pride in her work as a transportation dispatcher, where her strong work ethic, dedication, and ability to connect with people shone brightly. She was admired not only by her colleagues but also by those who witnessed her commitment to balancing her career and family with grace.

Above all, Jennie found great purpose in caring for others, especially her beloved father, Husband, Son, grandchildren and nieces and nephews. She poured her heart into ensuring they felt loved, supported, and cherished, creating memories that will last a lifetime. Her grandchildren were her pride and joy, and she embraced her role as their grandmother with endless devotion.

Jennie is survived by her loving husband, Charles Gregory Sr., her son Charles Gregory Jr., and her grandchildren Elijah, Dalen, and Kameron. She is also survived by her father Ramon Marquez, her brothers Luis (Annette) and Ismael, and her sisters Elsie, Jackie (Steve), and Evelyn (Terry). She was preceded in death by her mother Gertrude Andrew-Marquez, her brother Thomas Ayala, and her sister Nancy Marquez.

She is also mourned by her extended sisters Vernita, Teresa, Nicole, and Carmen, along with her beloved nieces and nephews Raymond, Jennifer, Erica, Lena, Tiffany, Teri, James, Anthony, Layla, Lewis, Shawn, Luis Jr., and Christian. She also leaves behind countless friends and extended family who were touched by her kindness, wisdom, and unwavering love.

Jennie will be remembered not only for the roles she embraced as wife, mother, grandmother, and professional, but also for the way she made everyone feel like family. Her legacy of love, joy, and togetherness will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.
