“ Jesus was an amazing person, and I truly enjoyed chatting with him about work and everyday life. He was always willing to help anytime I needed assistance at the spa. I will miss him dearly, and he will always be remembered as the beautiful soul he was.

“ Jesus, was truly loved at the Alford Inn. He was a beacon of light to be around, and always made sure to encourage those around him. Often times, Jesus raved about his kids and shared pictures of his fur baby, Dutch, emphasizing his caring nature. I will truly miss catching up and seeing him make others smile. Rest in Peace, Jesus 🙏
